Form I-9 and E-Verify Workflow

Three Steps to Getting the Form Completed:

1. The Employee completes Section 1 using the onboarding tasks assigned via email from Taleo.

2. The Employer completes Section 2 by accessing the I-9 via email notification when the employee starts.
   a) Be sure to scan and save documents as a PDF for upload after

3. Completion of Section 2 automatically submits the information through E-verify and a result is returned.
   - 98% are returned “Authorized to Work”
   - 2% require additional steps
Overview of E-Verify Process

How Does E-Verify Work?

1. Form I-9 information is sent to through the E-verify check system
2. Results are returned – (98% come back “Employment Authorized”)
3. Customer must take action on Tentative Non-Confirmations

Corrections

1. Use Correct I-9 Form to send the I-9 back to the New Hire.

   » Section 1 corrections are ONLY to be made by the New Hire.
The employee must present original documents, with the exception that the employee may present a certified copy of a birth certificate. The employer must physically examine the actual document or documents presented by the employee and determine if they reasonably appear on their face to be genuine and to relate to the employee presenting them. If the document(s) do not reasonably appear on their face to be genuine or to relate to the person presenting them, the employer must not accept them. In such circumstances, the employer should allow the employee to choose any other document(s) the employee wants to present from the "Lists of Acceptable Documents" for review and, if appropriate, acceptance, by the employer.

This employer participates in the federal employment eligibility verification program E-Verify. The E-Verify program requires that you may accept List B documents, only if they include a photograph and a social security number or alien registration number. Please note that all documents presented by the new hire must be original documents.
