

Exempt Professional Jobs on Campus

Positions Exempted for the State Personnel System

These positions are not academic or research in nature and are exempted from the state personnel system because the job met provisions outlined in the Exemption Policy.

Generally these are professional level positions; however, some positions that are supported by grant funds will be listed as exempt professionals.