This summer The Denver Foundation will place 14 well-qualified undergraduate students into paid internship opportunities with partnering nonprofit community organizations.

SELECTED STUDENTS WILL:

- Earn wages of $13/hour for an average of 30-35 hours per week for 10 weeks
- Enhance community leadership skills
- Gain real-world work experience
- Broaden their understanding of the nonprofit community and issues addressed
- Address issues of racial, ethnic, and economic equity
- Connect with other students that share the same interests in giving back
- Have fun!

TO BE ELIGIBLE, YOU NEED TO:

- Have a minimum of a 2.5 GPA
- Have completed at least 12 credits or the equivalent of one semester of college
- Be an undergraduate student attending a 2- to 4-year college or university in pursuit of your first Associate’s or Bachelor’s Degree
- Attend college in one of the seven counties of Metro Denver (Adams, Arapahoe, Boulder, Broomfield, Denver, Douglas, and Jefferson), OR be a permanent resident of one of Metro Denver’s seven counties while attending school elsewhere
