

Easy Online Photo Editing

Editing your images use to be an extremely difficult process since access to software and hardware was quite challenging.

Today, the prices of photo editing software have dropped dramatically allowing users to access and edit their images more easily.

This document will compare several online photo editing software that are free to help get you started.

Software	Pros	Cons	Price
Picnik http://www.picnik.com/	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Easy to use -Upload your photos from flickr, facebook, photobucket, picasa 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Basic tools to work with. -Need to upgrade if you want to do more with the image 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Basic version is free, upgrade to Premium for $24.95 a year
Photoshop Express https://www.photoshop.com/express/landing.html	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Easy to use -more features to use than Picnik -Upload your photos from flickr, facebook, photobucket, picasa, myspace -great How-to videos on site 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Uploads are limited to file size (up to 2GB) and dimensions (both dimensions less than 4000 pixels) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Basic level is free, upgrade to 20 GB storage space @ $19.99 a year
Fotoflexer http://fotoflexer.com/	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Easy to use -Can work on multiple pictures at the same time -Tons of great features such as effects, smart cutout, layers, morphing and collages -Upload your photos from flickr, facebook, picasa, myspace 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -By default, when uploading a high-res photo, it will knock down the resolution size 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Free
Lunapic http://www.lunapic.com/editor/	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Tons of features to choose from such as effects and animations -Great undo history list -Good online tutorials 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Restrictions on canvas size 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Free

Splashup http://www.splashup.com/	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Photoshop like layer and selection tools -Upload your photos from flickr, facebook, picasa, myspace 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Not as easy as other online photo editing tools -No online help 	-Free
Pixer.us http://pixer.us/	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Easy to use interface -Great preview and undo tool -No need to register for an account -Basic features include crop, rotate/flip, blur/sharpen, resize etc 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -No advanced tools 	-Free
Picture2Life http://www.picture2life.com/	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Ability to save a sequence of effects you've applied to one photo -Upload your photos from flickr, photobucket, myspace -Decent online F.A.Q's 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Automatically downsamples your high-res photos 	-Free
Snipshot http://snipshot.com/	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Simple and clear interface with no ads at all -Output to six file types 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -No red-eye correction or fun effects, no printing 	-Free, but a subscription to Pro version starts at $9 a month
flaunTR http://www.flauntr.com/	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Upload photos from Picasa 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Appearing & disappearing undo button, depending on where you are -Takes a few seconds to hop between the applets 	-Free