

CU Denver History Undergraduate Honors Spring 2015

Cum laude:

Glen Anstine

“Kingdom of Disenchantment: Filipino Immigration to America in the Twentieth Century”

Logan Clarry

“A Tale of Two Reichs: The Influences of Wilhelmine Imperialism and Nazi Racial policies on German Colonialism 1883-1945”

Emily Galvin

“Legalizing Women: Women’s Changing Role in the Public Sphere Reflected in the Law, Britain 1950s-1970s”

Sean Irwin

“Trying Jihad: The General Court Martial of Major Nidal Hasan under the Uniform Code of Military Justice”

Leif Nordhagen

“Virtues and Vices: James Madison, Thomas Jefferson, and the Creation of a Republic”

Ashley Taylor

“Vehicles of Filth and Squalor: Institutionalized Prostitution through Legislation in Mid-Nineteenth-Century Britain and Colonial India”

Magna cum laude:

Thomas Cassidy

“Fine Line: Using Mapping and Geography to Understand the Sudanese Civil Wars, 1955-Present”

Joseph Felling

“Of Heavens and Heathens: The Portrayal of British Missionary Life and Affairs in Nineteenth-Century Africa”

Emily McCormack

“Reluctant Colonizers: British Government’s Influence on Western Gender Norms in Colonial Kenya: 1920-1963”

Kenzie McManus

“Kharma: Influences of British Imperialism on Indian Nationalism, 1830-1947”