DEAN’S LIST CRITERIA:

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences (CLAS) Dean’s List recognizes outstanding academic achievement for the semester or term.

To be eligible for the Dean’s List, liberal arts students must complete each of the following criteria:

- Minimum 3.75 semester grade-point average for all University of Colorado course work
- Minimum 3.75 semester grade-point average in a minimum of 9 semester hours (6 summer) of CLAS courses
- Students accepted into the Undergraduate Teacher Education Program - minimum 3.75 semester grade-point average in a minimum of 9 semester hours (6 hours for summer) of CLAS/IPTE/SPED courses.

Other Important Information to Remember:

- Independent study and cooperative education courses are excluded from meeting semester credit hours required for the Dean’s List.
- Letter grades used to compute the Dean’s List semester grade point average must be official by the end of the semester or term.
- Students who qualify for the CLAS Dean’s List will receive notification from the CLAS Student Advising Office approximately 4-6 weeks after the end of the semester.
- Students who make the CLAS Dean’s List for the Fall and Spring semesters may be eligible for the Dean’s List scholarship award.
  a. Students will be notified for during the Summer term
  b. Students must apply and meet all eligibility requirements to be awarded the CLAS Dean’s List scholarship. (See eligibility criteria on the back side of this document.)
Dean’s List Scholarship Criteria

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences (CLAS) awards scholarship funds to students to recognize outstanding achievement. These scholarship funds are provided to CLAS by the State of Colorado and administered through the UCD Office of Financial Aid. Students receiving financial aid who are awarded a Dean’s List Scholarship may have their financial aid package adjusted.

To be eligible, students must:

1. be currently enrolled as a CLAS undergraduate
2. intend to graduate with a baccalaureate degree in CLAS
   - Undeclared liberal arts students must declare a major
   - Pre-Business & Pre-Engineering are not eligible
   - Pre-Health Career (Pre-Dental, Pre-Medicine, Pre-Nursing, Pre-Pharmacy, etc) must declare a major to be eligible
3. be completing requirements towards their first baccalaureate degree
4. have been named to the Fall and Spring semesters CLAS Dean’s List for the academic year immediately preceding the CLAS Dean’s List Scholarship award
   The CLAS Dean’s List criteria are published in the CU Denver Catalog, and on the CLAS Advising webpage
5. have a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 in their University of Colorado course work
6. meet the state benefits eligibility
7. Recipients must meet the requirements of the CU Denver Financial Aid Academic Standards Policy.
8. Recipient may not be in default on a student loan nor owe a repayment of aid grant.

The scholarships are based solely on academic performance. The philosophy of the College is that all eligible students will receive Dean’s List Scholarship funds. Students who make the CLAS Dean’s List for both semesters of the previous academic year are automatically notified of their potential eligibility during the summer term (typically in early June). Students must apply and meet all eligibility requirements to be awarded the CLAS Dean’s List scholarship.

Question about the CLAS Dean’s Scholarship should be directed to the CLAS Advising Office located in NC 1030, or via phone at 303-556-2555 or email at CLAS_Advising@ucdenver.edu.
