

MPH – Applied Biostatistics

Preferred Qualifications

- Successful completion of at least 2 or more college-level math/statistics courses
- Experience with statistical computing programs (e.g. R, SAS, SPSS, Stata)
- One letter of recommendation from a faculty member who can attest to your quantitative readiness

MPH – Community & Behavioral Health

Preferred Qualifications

- Strong analytic and written communication skills
- One year of practical experience (e.g., internships, paid work experiences, and volunteering)

MPH – Community Health Education

Preferred Qualifications

- Strong desire to engage with and learn from communities
- Previous coursework related to public health, community health, education, statistics, health science and/or behavioral science is desirable
- Community health related volunteer and work experience

MPH – Environmental & Occupational Health

Required

- Background in health or natural sciences with a science GPA of 3.0 or better

Preferred Qualifications

- Previous coursework in chemistry, biology, statistics, and/or geographic information systems
- One year of professional experience (internships, paid work experience, Peace Corps volunteer)
- Strong analytic and writing skills

MPH – Epidemiology

Required

- Evidence of analytic/quantitative abilities by presenting at least one of the following:
  - o Academic background in health, public health, or natural sciences with a math/science GPA of 3.0 or better
  - o GRE or MCAT scores
  - o Written product from a professional experience demonstrating analytic/quantitative skill
  - o Letter(s) of recommendation that give specific examples of applicant's analytic/quantitative abilities

Preferred Qualifications

- Previous coursework in chemistry, biology, statistics, or math is strongly recommended

MPH – Health Systems, Management & Policy

Required

- Proficiency in arithmetic, algebra and geometry

Preferred Qualifications

- Previous experience with quantitative reasoning, data analysis and/or statistics
- Strong analytical writing and verbal communication skills
- Experience with healthcare and/or public health programs and policies

MPH – Leadership & Public Health Practice

Preferred Qualifications

- Professional experience commensurate with this leadership concentration

MPH – Maternal & Child Health

Required

- Successful completion of a human development or child development course ( $\geq 3$  credits of undergraduate, or higher-level coursework) will be required prior to beginning coursework for this degree.

Preferred Qualifications

- Previous experience in Maternal and Child Health (either paid and/or volunteer)