Mission Statement: CREA Results is a cultural broker, building the assets of the Latino Community by increasing health equity and economic security. CREA transforms the way organizations engage with Latinos by promoting the unique culture and assets that Latinos contribute to their communities.

CREA Results is a grassroots community organization founded and lead by Community Health Workers (Promotores de Salud) in Colorado. CREA Results’ mission is to increase awareness and education on community health issues that affect the Latino community. This mission is achieved by mobilizing and integrating the assets of the Latino community through a unique community-based outreach model led by its Promotores de Salud. The LRPC has collaborated with CREA Results (2012) in the development and implementation of a “Boot Camp Translation” project to educate Latinos about Cardiovascular Disease/Hypertension that affect them (see collaboration below under Service Activities #4, Hypertension Workgroup).

http://creareresults.org/wordpress1/
Target Area: Latino Communities throughout Colorado, including native-born and immigrant.

Services Provided: Project Juntos por la Salud, provides health access services targeting key priority public health issues. Promotores Verdes Program, which helps participants build their skills to protect the environment through engagement, leadership and advocacy. Health Powers Life/La salud es la fuerza de la Vida Program, brings health information, education and resources to the immigrants living in Aurora.

Mission: CAHEP seeks to improve the health of Colorado’s immigrant communities through culturally and linguistically appropriate prevention, health education, wellness activities, early detection, and self-management of disease.

Colorado Alliance for Health Equity and Practice (CAHEP) is a nonprofit organization committed to reducing health disparities in multi-ethnic immigrant populations in Colorado by providing an inclusive framework of community organizations sharing good practices in health care.

National Latina Institute for Reproductive Health (NLIRH)

Address: N/A

Email: HumanResources@latinainstitute.org

Website: http://latinainstitute.org/en

Phone: 212-422-2553

Executive Director: Jessica Gonzalez-Rojas (jessica@latinainstitute.org)

Contact Person: Elianne Ramos
Mission Statement: National Latina Institute for Reproductive Health (NLIRH) builds Latina power to guarantee the fundamental human right to reproductive health, dignity and justice. We elevate Latina leaders, mobilize our families and communities, transform the cultural narrative and catalyze policy change.

NLIRH is the only national reproductive justice organization dedicated to the reproductive health, dignity, and justice for 26 million Latinas, their families, and their communities. NLIRH was founded in 1994 and it has grown to meet the needs of an increasingly diverse and powerful Latina population. NLIRH uses policy change, culture shift, relationship building, and leadership development to advance a reproductive justice agenda. The LRPC is collaborating with the NLIRH in an LRPC led project, funded by the FORD Foundation (2013-2015), to educate the public and local and state policy officials about Colorado Latina teen mothers’ access and use of reproductive health care services (see A3 under Submission of Grant Proposals below).

Target Area: The 26 million Latinas, their families, and communities in the United States.

Services Provided: Abortion Access and Affordability, Sexual and Reproductive Health Equity, and Immigrant Women’s Health and Rights (including LGBTQ Liberation, Health Equity, Contraceptive Equity, Cervical Cancer Prevention, and Dignity for Pregnant and Parenting Youth)
Mission Statement: COLOR is a sisterhood of Latinas dedicated to building a movement of Latinas, their families and allies through leadership development, organizing and advocacy to create opportunity and achieve reproductive justice.

Colorado Organization for Latina Opportunity and Reproductive Rights (COLOR) is a Denver-based grassroots nonprofit that is both Latina-led and Latina-serving. We lift the voices of Latinas and empower our community to lead successful, healthy lives. COLOR’s work blends leadership development, organizing and advocacy.

Target Area: Latinas, their families and allies.

Services Provided: A number of different programs and volunteer services. COLORado 1in3 Youth Leadership Council recruits student activists ages 18-24 who conduct outreach on college campuses to collect stories of individuals who have faced stigma, judgment and shame for considering or seeking abortion care. Latinas of Vision (LOV) is a program for middle and high school youth and serve as entry points for young Latinas and their families seeking to make change in their communities. LIPS (Latinas Increasing Political Strength) Leadership Institute & Mentorship Program which mentors the next generation of Latina leaders to promote the advancement of the Latino community and advocate for reproductive justice issues. There are also activities for adults and parents: an informal “Cafecito” or a larger Parents and Families Workshop.
Mission Statement: Servicios de La Raza’s mission is to provide and advocate for culturally responsive, essential human services and opportunities.

Our services are intended to assist low-income members of the community in overcoming the range of problems that result in a lack of resources and contribute to the perpetuation of the vicious cycle of poverty. Because of the value placed on the community, culture and language, Servicios de La Raza serves as a trusted and accessible community resource strategically linked with many of Metro Denver’s schools and churches. Equally important, Servicios de La Raza is also a primary service referral channel for many human services agencies and institutions in the Metro Denver region as they encounter Latino clientele. Target Area: The Latino community in Metro Denver.

Services Provided: La Gente (The People), a bilingual HIV/AIDS services program. Work and Gain Education and Employment Services, which provides re-entry services for adult parolees, adult job development, adult job training & certification support, case management, transportation assistance, various support groups, HIV/STI testing & education, mental health counseling, and health insurance enrollment. YES Program, where we strive to empower youth by providing opportunities to have successful and fulfilling lives. VISTAS (Victims in Safe Transition and Self-Sufficiency and Domestic Violence Program) program provides culturally and linguistically responsive services for English and Spanish-speaking victims of domestic violence, stalking, dating violence, and sexual assault. Juntos- Basic Emergency Services Program, assists vulnerable individuals and families out of crises to achieve, learn and acquire self-sufficiency, greater security and stability in their lives. Mental Health Program, which serves residents of Metro Denver who seek assistance with addressing their mental and behavioral health needs including substance abuse. HELP (Health Enrollment, Literacy, and Promotions) provides culturally and linguistically relevant presentations and education to the English and Spanish speaking Latino/Chicano communities.

Clinica Tepeyac

Mission Statement: Provide culturally competent health care and preventive health services for the medically underserved.

We envision a healthy community. The people we serve understand that health care is regular and ongoing. They are healthier and their children are healthier. There are fewer people in emergency rooms receiving routine care. As we can expand our reach and bring cultural competency into the community, we are able to help more people live healthy lives.

Target Area: Disadvantaged areas of the Denver community, including English and Spanish speaking peoples.

Services Provided: Comprehensive evidence-based primary care, including preventative care, on-site acute treatment, chronic disease management, personal health coaching, HIV/AIDS care management, referrals for specialty care, and case management. Behavioral counseling for individuals, couples, families, and groups, including short-term behavioral interventions and long-term traditional therapy. Preventive oral health services through a dental hygienist, including screening and preventive care. Chronic disease management and prevention, including diabetes prevention education, cancer awareness and prevention, healthy cooking and exercise classes. Child care, including vaccines and developmental screening and education. Prenatal and postpartum care.
Mission Statement: VUELA’s mission is to mobilize and engage parents by offering education, resources, and support that strengthen their sense of self-worth, and promote a healthy change in their families and communities.

VUELA’s primary objective is to engage the Latino community through strategic partnerships that build leadership, promote public health, and foster economic, environmental, and social well-being. A team of Promotoras, passionate cultural and linguistic liaisons who advocate on behalf of the community and build trust between community members and local service agencies, drive its work. Promotoras implement programs designed to address health issues that are preventable through small changes in daily habits.

Target Area: The Latino community, with a focus primarily on families.

Services Provided: VUELA provides health information/resources to help community members access services including but not limited to: nutrition, physical activity (Playing together - Jugando Juntos, Fortalece tu futuro), obesity (Vuela con Salud - Diabetes Prevention Program), heart disease (CHARLAR), cancer, sexual health, child health, mental health (Youth Mental Health First Aids, Comunication is the Key - Comunicacion es la clave), substance abuse, domestic and intimate partner violence, injury prevention, and access to health services.

Executive Director
Jill Schneider (jschneider@clinicacolorado.org)

Mission Statement: The mission of Clinica Colorado is to provide low cost health care for those who are indigent, without health insurance or unable to obtain primary care services.

Since June 2011, Clinica Colorado has served populations in Adams County and surrounding areas with low cost, primary health care, especially for those who are uninsured. In Colorado, it is estimated that there remain 350,000 without health insurance even after the implementation of the Affordable Care Act. There may be many reasons that individuals and families are not covered by health insurance and that is who we serve. Clinica Colorado’s vision is to have affordable health care available to all the residents of Colorado.

Target Area: Individuals of all ages, including entire families.

Services Provided: We provide preventive health care for adults including physical examinations, wellness checks and cancer screenings, including at-home colorectal screenings and, if needed, colonoscopies. We diagnose and manage medical issues both acute and chronic. We provide preventive and diagnostic care for women of all ages, including breast...
exams, pap exams and mammograms. We provide pregnancy tests, initial pregnancy exams and comprehensive prenatal care. We partner with the Nurse Midwifery Program at St. Joseph Hospital to provide delivery and hospital care. Also, a midwife provides prenatal care through our clinic. As part of our holistic approach to healthcare, we have culturally competent, bilingual behavioral health counselors available to attend to the emotional well-being of our patients and their families. Per referrals from our providers, children, individuals, couples and families are provided in-clinic services.

Mission Statement: Our overall goal is to support a coordinated, patient-centered model of care to better serve the needs of the Health First Colorado population, improve health and life outcomes, and optimize resources in an effort to avoid duplication of services and reduce the costs of care.

Founded in 2010 specifically to meet the needs of Health First Colorado members, CCHA combines the extensive resources of Anthem, Centura Health, Physician Health Partners and Primary Physician Partners to create a unique and influential model of care that integrates behavioral health and physical health under one united entity. This combination of primary care medical providers, specialists, hospital, and behavioral health services lays the foundation for the health neighborhood and allows CCHA to break down the typically silo nature of health care and ensure members are receiving the right care, at the right time and in the right setting.

Target Area: Approximately 330,000 members enrolled in the Health First Colorado Accountable Care Collaborative (ACC).

Services Provided: CCHA maintains a diverse network of primary care and behavioral health providers who are committed to delivering integrated, coordinated care for ACC members. We also promote collaborative relationships among the health neighborhood, bringing together the full spectrum of providers, community services and supports CCHA spends time promoting integration of physical and behavioral health care, identifying early signs of mental health and substance use disorders and improving access to services, connecting members with resources for non-medical needs that impact their health, educating and empowering members to take an active role in managing their health, and supporting providers with a range of services, tools and payment opportunities to help them achieve performance targets and provide quality care to members.

Mission Statement: Our mission is to develop healthy communities by creating sustainable community partnerships and by identifying, measuring and applying local community solutions.

2040 Partners for Health was founded in 2006 by local health advocates, educators and public service professionals, who envisioned the need to foster communities' resources, wishes and commitments as mutual partners to foster and strengthen healthy communities. Through a portfolio of programs, 2040, the community and its partners are tackling a wide range of issues that greatly impact our communities and working towards the vision of healthy communities which elevate and maximize human potential and well-being.

Target Area: East Montclair, Greater Park Hill, Northeast Park Hill, Northwest Aurora, Montebello, Commerce City and Stapleton.

Services Provided: C-STAHR, a coalition of community members, physicians, and health profession students that work on education initiatives; creating clinic and community based tools to improve patient-provider relationships; empowering minority youth related to their own health and encouraging them to consider health care careers. “Working to End Teen Obesity” examines conversations between health care providers and adolescent patients about body image and weight. Programs including: Addressing Infant Mortality, Refugees Programs, Kick It Tobacco Team, Mental Health, Asthma, Developmental Delay, and Community-Based Participatory Research.

Ventanilla de Salud
Mission Statement: To improve access to primary and preventive health services, to increase health insurance coverage and to promote a culture of preventive health care among Mexicans and their families living in the United States by providing information, education, counseling and quality referrals in a safe and friendly environment through local and bi-national partnerships between the Unites States and Mexico.

The Ventanilla de Salud is a program of the Government of Mexico developed by the Department of Health and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and implemented through 50 Mexican consulates in the United States and local health organizations. The Ventanillas provide reliable information on health topics, counseling and referrals to health services available and accessible in local communities. This program was designed to improve the physical and mental health of Mexicans living in the United States and to increase access to primary and preventive health insurance coverage and ensure culturally sensitive services in order to reduce the use of emergency services. The Ventanilla de Salud or Window of Health at the Mexican Consulate in Denver offers: Health presentations every Monday and Friday from 9 am to 1 pm. Health Promoters who are available Monday - Friday 9am to 1 pm to help you find health resources near you. Our staff is bilingual and is ready to help you connect with the resources available in your community.

Target Area: Mexican immigrants and people of Mexican descent living in Denver.

Services Provided: Health Education, One on One assessment of medical need, Free Diabetes test, Free Body Mass Index, Free Blood Pressure Check, Free FINDRisk Survey, Connection to low cost medical providers, Monthly medical services through Salud Mobile Unit, Monthly medical services through Juntos por la Salud Mobile Unit, Access to community programs like Diabetes Prevention Program, Organization of Community Health Events for free screenings, Referrals and Information

Aurora Health Access
Mission Statement: To work collaboratively to improve access to healthcare & create a healthier Aurora, with a focus on the most vulnerable & underserved.

AHA offers an inclusive convening table where health and community leaders can come together to discuss and develop solutions to health access issues in their community: inadequate primary care capacity, limited access to specialty care, inequitable distribution of health resources, and fragmented approaches to solutions. AHA provides a practical, innovative, and open approach to collaboration. AHA not only reacts to, but also tries to anticipate, the needs in the community.

Target Area: Residents of Aurora, Colorado.

Services Provided: Information reports and resources including: Know Where to Go, Senior Oral Health Guide, Finding a Dental Home in Aurora, Know What to Ask, Life Expectancy in Aurora, Information about Aurora Health Access, AHA newsletter, and Gold Star Stories. Mission Statement: We strive to be a trusted and leading source of credible analysis and expertise for Colorado leaders.

Since our founding in 2002, the Colorado Health Institute has provided evidence-based data and information to inform policy, advance health, promote collaboration and support better access to care for all Coloradans. Research is our priority, but it is just the beginning of our work. We have branched out in response to profound innovations in health, health care and health policy. Today, we are trusted strategic advisors, skilled evaluators and sought-after facilitators. We are a valued partner with the individuals, groups and communities across the state working to make Colorado No. 1 in health.

Report: Latino Aging in Colorado; Older Latinos report worse health than other Colorado seniors. Poor access to care and health costs are partially to blame. Published: April 26, 2017.

The Mile High Health Alliance brings together stakeholders from medical care, behavioral health care, public health, and social and community services, to collaboratively address the city’s most difficult health challenges and achieve better health. It was formally established in January 2015 to fulfill an important recommendation in Denver’s 2014-2018 Community Health Improvement Plan (CHIP), to increase access to care, better coordinate health care services, and decrease health care costs in the city. The Alliance was formed through a year-long, multi-stakeholder planning process in 2014, supported by a grant from the Colorado Trust.

Target Area: All Denver residents.

Services Provided: The Alliance has three active Working Groups that meet monthly to coordinate activities and develop plans for collaboratively addressing system-level issues in their respective areas. These groups include: Integrated Care, which plans to assist Denver’s safety-net clinics to develop and improve integrated care models in their practices; Specialty Care Access addresses barriers to accessing specialty care for low-income persons in Denver; and High Needs Patients, which leads metro-wide efforts to better serve the needs of high utilizers of the health care system, such as residents who frequently use emergency departments and are re-admitted to hospitals.

Mission Statement: To eliminate the hurdles preventing Coloradans from achieving good oral health.

For 15 years, Oral Health Colorado (OHCO) has been raising awareness of the importance of oral health, and we won’t stop until all Coloradans enjoy a just and equitable oral health care system. Lack of transportation, inadequate access to nutritious food or fluoridated water, language barriers and insufficient health insurance are some of the systemic obstacles many of our neighbors, friends and coworkers face. Age, disability and discrimination based on race, ethnicity or sexual orientation also keep many among us from achieving and maintaining good oral health. At OHCO, we create meaningful partnerships with organizations, networks and influencers to clear the path to excellent oral health for all Coloradans.

Target Area: Disadvantaged residents of Colorado who cannot access dental care.

Services Provided: Advocacy resources including: how to advocate individually at the legislative level; information on campaigns, the Colorado Oral Health Plan, research articles, reports, issue briefs, and more. Patient resources for: finding a provider, dental insurance, and patient education. All of these are through the OHC website.
Mission Statement: To reduce health and social disparities among people of color.

Our name is based upon our principle that the consciousness of people of color can best be raised by working with leaders from the community and including those leaders and agencies which have a history and natural inclination to work best with the communities they serve. In many instances, agencies get funding for programs and projects to educate their community about issues, and base their programs on that funding. We involve the community in identifying and evaluating the need for programs, find appropriate community members or agencies to work on those programs, and then find funding for all involved collaborators to implement the programs. It Takes a Village was founded to address the lack of services primarily for African Americans, however, our village includes people of all races, ethnicities, sexual orientations, gender identities, religions.

Target Area: Colored peoples in the Denver/Aurora, Colorado metropolitan area.

Services Provided: Our programs include: Brothas4Ever, Client Services, Community without Walls, HIV and STD Testing and Counseling, Homelessness Prevention and Re-housing Program (HPRP), Phenomenal Women, Seeking Safety Group, Substance Abuse Treatment, The Just Us Project, TransAction.

Padres & Jóvenes Unidos is a multi-issue organization led by people of color who work for educational equity, racial justice, immigrant rights and quality healthcare for all. Jóvenes Unidos, the youth initiative of Padres Unidos, emerged as young people became active in reforming their schools, ending the school to jail track and organizing for immigrant student rights. Both Padres and Jóvenes Unidos build power to challenge the root cause of discrimination, racism and inequity by exposing the economic, social and institutional basis for injustice as well as developing effective strategies to realize meaningful change.
Target Area: Spanish-speaking parents and students of the Denver-Metro area and throughout Colorado, hopefully nationwide in the near future.

Services Provided: Statewide Campaign to End the School-to-Jail Track in Colorado, which advocates for a safe and supportive school environment that keeps students in school and out of the juvenile justice system. Civic engagement activities which encourages the Latino population to become more involved in the political arena. College Prep for All advocates for more college level academic preparation so high school graduates can transition to college easier, and Healthy Schools in DPS. Immigrant Rights, focuses primarily on immigrant students and families. Other coalition work that works with early childhood development, racial justice, public education rights and physical education.

Mission Statement: We believe that young people deserve honest information, deserve for their voice to be heard, and deserve to live healthy lives without shame or fear. YTH is committed to pursuing emerging, startling, and sometimes, simple technologies that can reach young people where they are.

YTH is a non-profit organization that partners with other entities that seek to promote new ways to advance youth and young adults’ health through technology. The LRPC is collaborating with YTH in an LRPC led project, funded by the FORD Foundation (2013-2015), to disseminate findings about Colorado Latina teen mothers’ access and use of reproductive health care services (see A3 under Submission of Grant Proposals below). Dissemination activities include innovative, web-based technologies to effectively reach youth across the United States.

Services Provided: YTH provides some resources and research projects. We've raised the visibility of youth health tech innovation locally, nationally, and globally through coverage in over 50 media channels. Projects include ZonaSegura, a trauma-informed youth-centered innovative mobile solution to address teen dating violence in Honduras; NEXT: digital access to preventive services, health and personal rights information for youth recently exiting foster and/or juvenile justice systems; Teen Privacy & Safety Online; and Youth Sexuality in the Digital Age partnered with TECHsex USA. Resources include a free health clinic locator and a news media fact sheet that promotes youth safety.

Mission Statement: To empower and enable Hispanic professionals to achieve their full educational, economic, and social potential.

Prospanica has advocated for Hispanic business professionals for 30 years. We want to be the leading catalyst for Hispanic professional achievement since our founding as the National Society of Hispanic MBAs in 1988. Our goal is that Hispanics will share in the affluence of the United States in proportion to their share of the population, as they attain higher education and leadership positions in record numbers. The entire country will be stronger as a result of greater participation from the Hispanic community. Many of our members have led our professional chapters and university chapters across the US and Puerto Rico, advancing diversity causes in their own communities. In 2016, as Hispanics continued to occupy a growing portion of the nation’s demographics, we rebranded as Prospanica to broaden our mission to serve all Hispanic professionals.

Target Area: Hispanics striving for professional career paths.
Services Provided: We've hosted annual career and professional development conferences, connecting thousands of Hispanics to graduate programs, subject matter experts, corporations, and each other. Prospanica has given over $8 million in scholarships for graduate education.

Mission Statement: Our mission is to educate, prepare, and empower teen mothers and their children.

Florence Crittenton Services of Colorado (FCSC) is a nonprofit that educates, prepares and empowers teen moms to be productive members of their community. Using a comprehensive and evidenced-based approach, the agency offers a spectrum of wraparound services for the entire teen family, including academics, career guidance and parenting training for pregnant and parenting teen mothers. The LRPC is collaborating with FCSC in an LRPC led project, funded by the FORD Foundation (2013-2015), to investigate and further disseminate information about Latina teen mothers’ access and use of reproductive health care services (A3 under Submission of Grant Proposals below).

Target Area: Teen families, including teen mothers, young fathers, and extended family members.

Services Provided: Our facilities include family-friendly space for staff and community partners to provide educational and human services on-site; a gymnasium equipped with safe and appropriate fitness equipment for the whole family; an 11-passenger van to assist teen mothers and children with transportation; an expanded and renovated Early Childhood Education Center for children of teen mothers ages 6 weeks through Pre-K; and the Alethia E. Morgan, MD Health Center, a school-based health center that offers both obstetrics and pediatrics. The campus also includes the new Florence Crittenton High School, where teen mothers can earn a Denver Public Schools diploma on-site.

Mission Statement: A safe and supportive environment where women could complete their education and acquire new employment skills while their children received help and encouragement in school.

At its inception in the late 1970s, Mi Casa began offering job-training programs for women. Recognizing self-employment as another viable route to economic stability, Mi Casa expanded in the mid-1980s to include bilingual business development services to low-income, female, and minority business owners. In the late-1990s, Mi Casa began offering a school-based neighborhood center and other academic and enrichment programs for middle and high school youth. As Mi Casa grew and developed, we recognized the need for programs to advance economic self-sufficiency for the entire family – not just women. In 2016, we altered our mission to reflect an expanded target population.

Target Area: Families with limited economic opportunities.

Services Provided: Business Development, including: training, workshops, consultations, and loans. Career Development including: coaching, workshops, and training. Youth development including: middle school programs, high school programs, and family services.

Mission Statement: AICS strives to help as many needy Aurora residents with substantive emergency assistance as possible with available in-kind and human resources.

Twenty-eight churches provide support to AICS along with businesses and city and county government. AICS served 9,154 persons in 2015, 302 more persons than were served in the food pantry in 2014. Currently, Aurora Interfaith Community Services is conducting a campaign to renovate the building for the community. AICS continues to strive to help as many Aurora residents in need with substantive emergency assistance as possible with available in-kind and human resources.

Target Area: Those in need who reside in Aurora.

Services Provided: It provides food, clothing, furniture, transportation, and “adopt-a-grandparent” and “big friend-little friend” services to clients referred by churches, schools and other agencies.

Village Exchange Center
Mission Statement: Village Exchange Center has an overarching goal of creating bridges between people and communities, both locally and globally.

The Village Exchange Center began as a concept in early 2016 when the faith community of St. Matthew Lutheran Church considered ways to be responsive to and serve its neighborhood, Aurora, and the wider community. The city of Aurora is among an increasing number of cities across the U.S. grappling with realities of integration with multiple cultures and communities of immigrants and refugees. In May 2017, the Village Exchange Center was launched to leave a legacy for the Faith Community of St Matthew and to build a bridge with and between the surrounding communities.

Target Area: Immigrants and refugees in the Aurora/Denver metro area.

Services Provided: Multiple programs and services including: ESL classes, Citizenship classes, Computer and Resource Lab, International Kids Club, Immigration Consultations, English Conversation Circle Program, Asylum information, case referrals, Local Food Pantry, Community Drop-In Care, and scrapbooking and storytelling.
Mission Statement: To help refugees and immigrants rebuild safe, sustainable lives in Denver.

At ECDC African Community Center, we welcome refugees who have fled persecution and have been granted third country resettlement through UNHCR and the U.S. State Department. Refugees come to Colorado from all regions of the world. ACC welcomes people from all over the globe. With a diverse staff and the help of faithful volunteers and interns, ACC conducts educational and social service programs that help newcomers rebuild their lives in their new community, navigate U.S. systems and cultures, gain confidence and economic self-sufficiency, and become productive, contributing, thriving members of society.

Target Area: Immigrants, refugees, and their families living in the Denver Area.

Services Provided: Resettlement, basic services are provided for up to 90 days, and case management and employment services may be provided for up to 5 years. Employment services working to match the skills and experiences of each refugee candidate with a good job. Integration programs including: We Made This, Youth Program, and Ready for American Hospitality.

Mission Statement: Ease the isolating experience of immigrant detention, one simple act of love at a time.

Casa de Paz began in 2012 as a small, one-bedroom apartment offering hospitality to families separated by immigrant detention. Our work has always been to host families whose loved ones are being detained and individuals who have been recently released. In 2017 we moved into a larger, rented house with more space so that we would not have to turn people away.

Target Area: Families affected by the immigrant detention center in Aurora.

Services Provided: Today, Casa de Paz provides visits and emotional support, shelter and meals, access to phones, Wi-Fi, computers and transportation. Detention is a difficult time that tears families apart and creates a financial burden, so we have always offered our services free of cost. Since we first opened our doors we’ve hosted over 1,600 immigrants and the need only continues to grow.

Mission Statement: To provide programs that foster community, self-sufficiency and increase quality of life among refugees and their families.

Project Worthmore was founded in 2011 by Frank and Carolyn Anello as a response to the acute need for assistance of the refugee families in their community. From our start offering makeshift English classes in living rooms, we now offer six comprehensive programs to thousands of refugee clients. Around half of our staff are from the refugee community, helping us to better listen, empower and support those who have come here to rebuild their lives. Strategically located off of east Colfax, Project Worthmore is in the heart of the refugee community and therefore easily accessed by our clients. Our team and impact continue to grow as we play a role in supporting people during the worst refugee crisis since World War II.

Target Area: Denver-area refugees.
Services Provided: Programs including: Delaney Community Farm, English Language Program, Community Navigators, Yu Meh Food Share, Family Partners, and Worthmore Clinic.

The Colorado Community Health Network (CCHN) represents the 20 Colorado Community Health Centers that together are the backbone of the primary health care safety-net in Colorado. CCHN is committed to:

1. educating policy makers and stakeholders about the unique needs of Community Health Centers (CHCs) and their patients,
2. providing resources to ensure that CHCs are strong organizations, and
3. supporting CHCs in maintaining the highest quality care.

Hispanic Access
Hispanic Access Foundation (HAF) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that connects Latinos with partners and opportunities to improve lives and create an equitable society. We design and implement data-driven initiatives that combine the strength of grassroots outreach with new and traditional forms of media to transform information into action. We build bridges that connect Latino communities with the information and services they need for a better life.

Family Leadership Training Institute
Family leadership is the capacity to interact within civil society with purpose and positive outcomes for children. Family leadership emerges when family and community leaders gain the knowledge and skills needed to succeed in leadership roles that help shape the future of children, youth, and families. When the family voice is dignified through meaningful leadership development and civic engagement opportunities, leaders acquire the civic tools necessary to engage in action that addresses critical health and social inequities that affect our schools, neighborhoods, and communities.
