BACJ ONLINE Courses Fall 2016!

Required Courses:
- CRJU 1000-E01 Criminal Justice: An Overview
  Instructor Sheila Huss
- CRJU 1000-E01 Criminal Justice: An Overview
  Instructor Angela Gover
- CRJU 2041-E01 Crime Theory and Causes
  Instructor Jennifer Brinkley
- CRJU 3150-E01 Statistics for CJ
  Instructor Wesley Jennings
- CRJU 4042-E01 Corrections
  Instructor Jessica Johnston

Electives:
- CRJU 4600-E01 Special Topics in CJ: Police Accountability
  Instructor Jennifer Fratello

  Online
  This course will explore police misconduct, discipline systems, and police oversight as well as key issues involving police use-of-force. Students will learn about systems that are used by police departments nationally to deter officers from engaging in misconduct, and to ensure that those who do are held accountable. In addition, this course will examine the role of Internal Affairs Bureaus within police departments, as well as the various models of police oversight that exist in the US. Students will also learn about the administrative and legal standards that apply in reviews of uses for force and officer-involved shootings, and the increasing role of technology in police accountability. Special emphasis will be placed on the use of research, data, and national best practices in police accountability systems. These goals will be accomplished by using course materials to critically evaluate real-world scenarios that have been the focus of national attention.

- CRJU 4600-E02 Special Topics in CJ: State Courts, Mediation and Restorative Justice
  Instructor Brenidy Rice

  Online
  This class is designed to prepare students for an internship or career with the Colorado Judicial Branch by exploring different topics that are examined daily by Court Programs Analysts at the State Court Administrator’s Office. Students will learn the basic concepts and theories behind restorative justice, problem solving courts, mediation, and family law, while simultaneously learning how these concepts are implemented in the real world.

- CRJU 4939-900 Internship
  Instructor Nora Scanlon

  Online
  Internships involve a career-related supervised experiential course in a criminal justice agency. Permission to enroll must be preceded by an application for an internship. Permission of instructor and advisor is required for undergraduate students. Max hours: 6 Credits.
BACJ IN-PERSON Courses Fall 2016!

Required Courses:
- CRJU 1000-001 Criminal Justice: An Overview
  Instructor Mary Dodge
- CRJU 1000-002 Criminal Justice: An Overview
  Instructor Sheila Huss
- CRJU 2041-001 Crime Theory and Causes
  Instructor Mary Dodge
- CRJU 3100-001 Research Methods for CJ
  Instructor Sheila Huss
- CRJU 4043-001 Law Enforcement
  Instructor Dik Kushdilian
- CRJU 4044-001 Courts & Judicial Process
  Instructor Eric Poole

Electives:
- CRJU 3250 Violence in Society
  Instructor Mark Pogrebin
  Tues/Thurs, 11:00 AM – 12:15 PM
  This course examines various aspects of violence including distribution over time and space, situations and circumstances associated with violent victimization and offending and how social institutions, community structure and cultural factors shape violent events. Max hours: 3 Credits.
- CRJU 4430-001 Law and Society
  Instructor Eric Poole
  Mon/Weds, 2:00-3:15 PM
  This course introduces students to the scholarly study of law. Students will become familiar with social science perspectives of the law, legal institutions, the legal process and the impact of law on behavior, with particular emphasis on the study of criminal behavior and the criminal justice process in American society. Additional topics include theories of law and legality, comparative legal systems, lawyers, judges and juries and the use of social science in the courts. Max hours: 3 Credits.
- CRJU 4600-001 Special Topics in CJ: Prisoner Reentry
  Instructor Mark Pogrebin
  Tues/Thurs 2:00-3:15 PM
  The issue of reintegrating ex-prisoners into the community has become an increasingly pressing one. In view of the rapid increase of the sheer number of former prisoners coming out of prison and their notorious lack of success in post-prison life, ex-offender reentry is one of the most important problems this nation faces. This seminar seeks to address the important issues of successful ex-offender reintegration and desistance from criminal behavior.