BACJ IN-PERSON Courses Spring 2016!

Required Courses:
- CRJU 1000 Criminal Justice: An Overview
  Instructor Mary Dodge
- CRJU 1000 Criminal Justice: An Overview (Hybrid)
  Instructor Sheila Huss
- CRJU 2041 Crime Theory & Causes
  Instructor Mark Pogrebin
- CRJU 3150 Statistics
  Instructor Lori Hughes
- CRJU 4042 Corrections
  Instructor Eric Poole

Electives:
- CRJU 4600 ST: Poverty and Crime
  Instructor Eric Poole
  This highly specialized seminar addresses cutting-edge and emerging developments in the field of criminal justice and provides students and faculty with the opportunity to explore significant themes, issues and problems from a broad interdisciplinary perspective. Topics vary from semester to semester. Prereq: CRJU 1000 and CRJU 2041 or permission of instructor.

- CRJU 4600 ST: Administration of Justice: Seminar
  Instructor Mark Pogrebin
  This highly specialized seminar addresses cutting-edge and emerging developments in the field of criminal justice and provides students and faculty with the opportunity to explore significant themes, issues and problems from a broad interdisciplinary perspective. Topics vary from semester to semester. Prereq: CRJU 1000 and CRJU 2041 or permission of instructor.
BACJ ONLINE Courses Spring 2016!

Required Courses:
CRJU 1000 Criminal Justice: An Overview
  Instructor Sheila Huss
CRJU 3100 Research Methods
  Instructor Lucy Dwight
CRJU 3150 Statistics
  Instructor Lucy Dwight
CRJU 4043 Law Enforcement
  Instructor Wesley Jennings
CRJU 4044 Courts
  Instructor Jack Reed

Electives:
CRJU 4140 Domestic Violence and Crime
  Instructor Angela Gover
This course examines the criminal justice systems response to intimate partner violence by focusing on the interactions between victims, offenders and the individual components of the criminal justice system. By exploring the dynamics of intimate partner violence this course addresses the theory, history, research, legislation and policy implications related to the criminal justice system's response to violence against women.

CRJU 4600 ST: Death Penalty
  Instructor Sheila Huss
This highly specialized seminar addresses cutting-edge and emerging developments in the field of criminal justice and provides students and faculty with the opportunity to explore significant themes, issues and problems from a broad interdisciplinary perspective. Topics vary from semester to semester. Prereq: CRJU 1000 and CRJU 2041 or permission of instructor.