

Bachelor of Arts in Public Service

SUMMER 2018 ONLINE Course Offerings

CORE REQUIRED COURSES

PUAD 1001-E01: Intro to Leadership and Public Service Instructor TBD

This course provides a broad introduction to public service and encourages exploration of personal values and interests related to leadership, community, and life choices. Multiple paths to advancing the public good are explored, including volunteerism, citizenship, and service in government and nonprofits. Max hours: 3 Credits.

PUAD 2001-E01: Management for Public Service Dr. Sean McCandless

Learn how managers in public sector organizations foster human capital and manage performance in a diverse, inclusive, and collaborative workforce. Examine strategic management techniques, human resource law and procedures. Explore the values of character and competence in creating effective organizations. Max hours: 3 Credits.

PUAD 3002-E01: Program Design, Evaluation, and Decision-Making Instructor TBD

Effective public service program outcomes are systematically managed, monitored, and evaluated. Learn the analytical, critical thinking, and problem-solving skills required for program design, implementation, evaluation, and evidence based decision-making. Max hours: 3 Credits.

ELECTIVES

PUAD 4004-E01: Building Financial Support for Nonprofit Organizations Prof. Jeffrey Burton

Examines methods, techniques, and directed experience in fundraising for nonprofit agencies. Explores relationships with umbrella organizations, government funding, grantsmanship, budget control, and accountability. Discusses social entrepreneurship and social innovation. Examines communications, marketing, and public relations intersection with resource development. Max hours: 3 Credits.