Permission to Share Capstone

Occasionally, the School of Public Affairs would like to share student capstone projects with others for the purposes of demonstrating exemplary student work. The capstone client and the student author are the owners of the capstone project, and so we need your permission to do so. Please indicate the circumstances under which you are willing to allow us to share this capstone project.

This capstone project may be used in future capstone seminars for the purposes of demonstrating exemplary work to students who are taking the capstone seminar.

YES   NO

This capstone project may be posted on the School of Public Affairs website or published in another form to demonstrate the nature of the capstone project to prospective students, current students, prospective capstone clients, and others who are interested in learning about the School of Public Affairs.

YES   NO

Capstone Title: ________________________________________________________________

Client: ________________________________________________________________

Semester Completed: _________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________
Signature

____________________________________________________
Printed Name

____________________________________________________
Date