

Systems of Supports and Services for Young Children and Their Families in Chittenden County

PARTNER Survey 2016 FINAL

Question

1. Please select your program, practice, or agency from the list.
2. What is your role within your program, practice, or organization (for example: early childhood care provider, social worker, case manager, physician, nurse, educator, outreach worker, etc.)?
3. How long have you been in this position (in months)?

4. Please indicate what your program, practice or organization contributes to the systems of supports and services for young children and their families in Chittenden County (choose as many as apply).
1. My program, practice or organization provides funding through grants and contracts to support the implementation of programs, community initiatives, etc.
 2. My program, practice or organization provides in-kind resources (e.g. meeting space).
 3. My program, practice or organization participates in data resource sharing, including data sets, collection and analysis to support the implementation of programs, community initiatives, etc.
 4. My program, practice or organization participates in an advisory role/capacity by sharing information and providing feedback to support the implementation of programs, community initiatives, etc.
 5. My program, practice or organization provides specific expertise in the areas of physical, mental and/or behavioral health.
 6. My program, practice or organization provides expertise in areas other than physical, mental and/or behavioral health.
 7. My program, practice or organization facilitates and promotes relationships across programs or practices by convening stakeholders for the purpose of program planning, implementation and information sharing.
 8. My program, practice or organization regularly advocates for policy in support of systems of supports and services for young children and their families in Chittenden County.
 9. My program, practice or organization organizes data across partner organizations so that it is usable and can inform system planning.
 10. My program, practice or organization has representation on the LAUNCH Implementing Partners Team.
 11. My program, practice or organization has LAUNCH funded staff positions.
 12. My program, practice or organization provides information and resources for children and families in Chittenden County.

5. What is your program/practice/organization's most important contribution to the systems of supports and services for young children and their families in Chittenden County? (Choose one response.)
1. My program, practice or organization provides funding through grants and contracts to support the implementation of programs, community initiatives, etc.
 2. My program, practice or organization provides in-kind resources (e.g. Meeting space).
 3. My program, practice or organization participates in data resource sharing, including data sets, collection and analysis to support the implementation of programs, community initiatives, etc.
 4. My program, practice or organization participates in an advisory role/capacity by sharing information and providing feedback to support the implementation of programs, community initiatives, etc.
 5. My program, practice or organization provides specific expertise in the areas of physical, mental and/or behavioral health.
 6. My program, practice or organization provides expertise in areas other than physical, mental and/or behavioral health.
 7. My program, practice or organization facilitates and promotes relationships across programs or practices by convening stakeholders for the purpose of program planning, implementation and information sharing.
 8. My program, practice or organization regularly advocates for policy in support of systems of supports and services for young children and their families in Chittenden County.
 9. My program, practice or organization organizes data across partner organizations so that it is usable and can inform system planning.
 10. My program, practice or organization has representation on the LAUNCH Implementing Partners Team.
 11. My program, practice or organization has LAUNCH funded staff positions.
 12. My program, practice or organization provides information and resources for children and families in Chittenden County.

- 6. Which of the following outcomes does your program, practice or organization address in its work related to Chittenden County's system of supports and services for young children and their families? (Choose all that apply):
1. Improved health education services, health literacy, educational resources
 2. Reduced health disparities
 3. Improved resource sharing
 4. Increased knowledge sharing
 5. Expanded sources and/or utilization of data
 6. Increased public awareness
 7. Improved policy, law, and/or regulation
 8. Improved health outcomes
 9. Improved communication
 10. Increased access to developmental assessment, screening, and services for young children and their families
 11. Expanded/improved use of culturally relevant, evidence-based, prevention/wellness practices across primary care & early childhood settings
 12. A workforce that understands young children's healthy development
 13. Improved systems of care for young children and families at the local, state, and federal levels
 14. More children entering school ready to learn

- 7. Which outcome of Chittenden County's system of supports and services for young children and their families is most important? (Choose the best response.)
1. Improved health education services, health literacy, educational resources
 2. Reduced health disparities
 3. Improved resource sharing
 4. Increased knowledge sharing
 5. Expanded sources and/or utilization of data
 6. Increased public awareness
 7. Improved policy, law, and/or regulation
 8. Improved health outcomes
 9. Improved communication
 10. Increased access to developmental assessment, screening, and services for young children and their families
 11. Expanded/improved use of culturally relevant, evidence-based, prevention/wellness practices across primary care & early childhood settings
 12. A workforce that understands young children's healthy development
 13. Improved systems of care for young children and families at the local, state, and federal levels
 14. More children entering school ready to learn

8. To date, how successful have providers of supports and services for young children and their families in Chittenden County been at establishing a coordinated and integrated system of care?
 1. Not Successful
 2. Somewhat Successful
 3. Successful
 4. Very Successful
 5. Completely Successful

9. What aspects of collaboration contribute to this success? (Choose all that apply.)
 1. Bringing together diverse stakeholders
 2. Meeting regularly
 3. Exchanging info/knowledge
 4. Sharing resources
 5. Creating informal relationships
 6. Making decisions collectively
 7. Having a shared mission, goals
 8. Establishing formal relationships between programs or practices providing supports or services for young children and their families (for example, establishing MOUs, or coordinating services across programs or practices working with the same family, etc.)
 9. Making data informed decisions

10. From this list, select programs, practices or organizations with which you have an established relationship (either formal or informal) to provide supports or services for young children and their families. In subsequent questions you will be asked about your relationships with these programs, practices or organizations in the context of the systems of supports and services for young children and their families in Chittenden County.

11. What kinds of activities does your relationship with this program, practice or organization entail? [Note that responses increase in level of collaboration.]

1. Cooperative Activities: involves exchanging information, attending meetings together, and offering resources to partners. (Example: Informs other programs of RFP release)
2. Coordinated Activities: Include cooperative activities in addition to intentional efforts to enhance each other's capacity for the mutual benefit of programs. Requires some planning and division of roles. (Example: Separate granting programs utilizing shared administrative processes and forms for application review and selection.)
3. Integrated Activities: In addition to cooperative and coordinated activities, includes using engaging in common activities to foster interdependence between partners. Requires planning and sharing of resources and power. (Example: Developing and utilizing shared priorities for funding effective prevention strategies. Funding pools may be combined.)

12. Which of the following strategies is involved in your work with this program, practice or organization to provide supports or services for young children and their families? [Choose all that apply].

1. Developmental screening and assessments in a wide range of child-serving settings
2. Integration of behavioral health into primary care settings
3. Mental health consultation in early childhood settings
4. Evidence-based home visiting programs
5. Family-strengthening and parent skills training and support
6. System development and coordination

		Questions - not modifiable	Not at all	A small amount	A fair amount	A great deal
Value	13.	How valuable is this program/practice/organization's power and influence to achieving the overall goal of improving the system of services and supports for families and young children? *Power/Influence: The degree to which a program, practice or organization holds a prominent position in the community by being powerful, or having influence, leadership, or success as a change agent.

	14.	How valuable is this program/practice/organization's level of involvement to achieving the overall goal of improving the system of services and supports for families and young children? *Level of Involvement: The degree to which this program, practice or organization is strongly committed and active in the partnership and gets things done.
	15	How valuable is this program/practice/organization's resource contribution to achieving the overall goal of improving the system of services and supports for families and young children? *Contributing Resources: the degree to which a program, practice or organization brings resources to the partnership like funding, information, or other resources.
Trust Questions	16	How reliable is the program/practice/organization? *Reliability: the degree to which a program, practice or organization follows through on commitments.
	17	To what extent does the program/practice/organization's mission align with the overall goal of improving the system of services and supports for families and young children? *Mission Congruence: the degree to which a program, practice or organization shares a common vision of the end goal of what working together should accomplish.
	18	How open to discussion is the program/practice/organization? *Openness: the degree to which a program, practice or organization is willing to engage in frank, open and civil discussion (especially when disagreement exists). When disagreement occurs, this program, practice or organization willingly considers a variety of viewpoints and engages in discussion. You are able to communicate with this organization in an open, trusting manner.
19	Please share any comments in the space below. [open ended]					