BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

ENTREPRENEURSHIP

DENVER'S BUSINESS SCHOOL
The future of business education in the Rocky Mountain region is here, at the University of Colorado Denver's Business School. Located in Denver’s vibrant downtown, the Business School’s extensive range of degree programs and innovative industry specializations keep pace with the needs of students and businesses in the region and beyond. Flexible class schedules, AACSB accreditation, and a focus on real-world application make the Business School a top choice for working professionals. Graduates leave with skills and knowledge that prime them for careers of significance.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP DRIVES CHANGE
The Jake Jabs Center for Entrepreneurship serves as a new idea laboratory that inspires and inculcates innovative thinking in the minds of students in a cross-disciplinary environment. We foster an open and diverse environment that emphasizes experiential learning, facilitated by a highly engaged faculty. Our relationships with business leaders and successful entrepreneurs further expand opportunities for students to research, assess, present, and execute ideas whether for a new business or to revitalize mature organizations in response to a perceived opportunity.

APPLIED CURRICULUM
The Jake Jabs Center’s entrepreneurship curriculum incorporates instruction, mentoring, and support from outstanding Business School faculty, as well as from outside professionals with expertise in new business development. Courses explore legal issues, social sector initiatives, new venture design, finance structuring, strategic web development, leadership, new product development and business plan creation. Students learn from case studies, classroom instruction, and guest lectures featuring successful entrepreneurs and renowned business leaders.

80% of new jobs in the Denver area are created by small businesses.
Entrepreneurship is the engine that fuels economic development both domestically and globally.

ABOUT THE JAKE JABS CENTER FOR ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Founded in 1996 by Richard and Pamela Bard and later renamed the Jake Jabs Center for Entrepreneurship following a transformational gift of $10 million from Jake Jabs, the center has prepared future leaders for success for almost two decades. Over the years, the Jabs Center has grown to host the largest AACSB accredited graduate entrepreneurship program in Colorado with a well-rounded suite of support services, ably supported by Colorado’s greatest entrepreneurs. This tremendous resource is now offered to undergraduate students via an emphasis in entrepreneurship.

The Business School at CU Denver has earned accreditation by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International). This elite distinction is only granted to the top business programs in the world that meet rigorous standards for curriculum, faculty, library, and computer resources.
