Call for Posters!

3rd Annual Global Health Symposium
“HIV/AIDS at Home and Abroad”

The University of Colorado Denver Center for Global Health (at Colorado School of Public Health) and the Division of Infectious Diseases AIDS Education and Training Center (School of Medicine) are soliciting poster submissions for the 3rd Annual Global Health Symposium: “HIV/AIDS at Home and Abroad.” The purpose of the poster presentations is to encourage information exchange about programs, research or projects. The topic of HIV/AIDS will be given priority but other global health topics will be considered.

All accepted abstracts will be presented as posters at a reception at the Global Health Symposium on October 15, 2010 from 3:15-4:30 pm. The Symposium will take place October 15 and 16 at the Anschutz Medical Campus in Aurora, Colorado.

Students and professionals are encouraged to submit abstracts for work they have either completed or are in process of completing. We are striving to have a wide variety of disciplines, departments and schools represented. Joint presentations are also encouraged.

Applications and symposium information are available online.

Applications must be received by is August 31, 2010.

For questions and additional information contact Becca Roy at Rebecca.Roy@ucdenver.edu or Laura Dickson at Laura.Dickson@ucdenver.edu. Please visit the Center for Global Health.
website to receive information about the Global Health Symposium.