Global Health Lecture Series

Mark your calendars for the following lecture:

August 11, 2010
‘Syndromic Management Intervention for the Management of Sexually Transmitted Infections In Zambia’
Presented by Yassa Pierre Y’Oniene, MD

Biographic Sketch
Dr. Yassa is the Head of the National STIs/HIV Reference Lab and Research Intervention University Teaching Hospital of Lusaka, Zambia. He is also the Project Director at the CDC for the Expansion of Reference Laboratory Infrastructure to Support HIV/AIDS/STD/TB activities in Zambia and an honorary lecturer at the School of Medicine at the University of Zambia.

Anschutz Medical Campus
12:00 – 1:00 p.m.
Education Building 2 North
Room 2106

Questions? Contact Michelle Shiver, Program Manager, Center for Global Health at michelle.shiver@ucdenver.edu