To: MID-CAREER WOMEN FACULTY
RE: PROFESSIONAL LEADERSHIP AWARD

DEADLINE: 5:00pm, Wednesday, September 10, 2014

The University of Colorado School of Medicine Women in Medicine and Science Office (WIMS) will fund registration and travel expenses up to $2500 each for 2 participants to attend the Mid-Career Women Faculty Professional Development Seminar, December 6-9, 2014 in Austin, TX. The Mid-Career Seminar is sponsored by the Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC).

This seminar is tailored to associate professors with ambition for departmental and institutional leadership in academic medicine, and who have medical school appointments in the United States.

The objectives of the seminar are to develop career paths to leadership; to provide background of institutional finance and departmental budgeting processes; to enhance further such skills as negotiation, communication and conflict resolution; and to expand networks of mentors and colleagues.

Additional information regarding the AAMC Mid-Career Seminar is available at this link: https://www.aamc.org/members/leadership/catalog/323118/mid-careerwomenfacultyprofessionaldevelopmentseminar.html.

To apply for this funding opportunity, please send the following information via email to CJ.Klingler@ucdenver.edu no later than 5:00pm Wednesday, September 10, 2014:

1. Your Curriculum vitae;
2. A one-page statement from you describing your qualifications, personal aspirations, and goals for attending the seminar; and
3. A letter of support from your department chair outlining your leadership potential.

Only associate professors with primary appointments at the University of Colorado School of Medicine are eligible to receive these awards, and any SOM faculty wishing to attend this seminar must first apply for funding through the Office of Women in Medicine and Science.

Applications to attend the seminar are submitted to AAMC through their website. Awardees will be notified when AAMC open their application process. Submission of an application for this funding is separate and does not fulfill the application requirements of the AAMC.

WIMS are very pleased to offer this opportunity. Please contact CJ Klingler with any questions.

Sincerely,

Judith G. Regensteiner, Ph.D.
