2018 ALUMNI AWARDS

Date: June 2017
To: Alumni of the University of Colorado School of Medicine
From: Jan Kief, MD – Class of 1982
       President, Medical Alumni Association

Subject: Nominations for University of Colorado School of Medicine Alumni Association Silver and Gold Award, Distinguished Service Award, Distinguished Achievement Award, and the Humanitarian Award.

Each year the University of Colorado School of Medicine and the Medical Alumni Association bestows four awards to distinguished alumni who have gone on to perform outstanding research, fill positions of significance, and/or serve their communities in extraordinary ways.
Because you are in a unique position to remember these exceptional medical professionals, the Medical Alumni Association seeks your help to identify these distinguished alumni who deserve recognition.

Below are descriptions of these awards:

- The Silver and Gold Award is the highest award the Medical Alumni Association can bestow. It is the policy of the Alumni Association to award the Silver and Gold Award for excellence in humanitarianism, citizenship, and professionalism, for outstanding service to the community, and contributions to the art and science of medicine.

- The Distinguished Service Award recognizes those who have contributed outstanding service to the Alumni Association and to the University of Colorado School of Medicine.

- The Distinguished Achievement Award recognizes those who have demonstrated outstanding achievements benefiting their communities, the practice of medicine, the provision of health care, our Association, and/or the University Of Colorado School Of Medicine.

- The Humanitarian Award recognizes lifelong service to society or to humankind and honors those who have provided extraordinary service to their community, demonstrating leadership through global or local service. The award honors those who have fulfilled the obligations of their education through creative citizenship and exemplary service leadership in ways that benefit society and bring credit to the institution.
Award Nomination Process:

1. Each year the Medical Alumni Association Board of Directors solicit names of nominees for these awards.

2. Silver and Gold, Distinguished Service, Distinguished Achievement, and Humanitarian Award nominations must be submitted on the award nomination form and supported by at least one letter of recommendation. The complete nomination package must be submitted to the Office of Alumni Relations at the CU Anschutz Medical Campus.

3. Nomination Guidelines: No person may nominate him/herself. Elected officials may be nominated two years after completion of their term of office. All nominations shall be considered confidential.

4. The Medical Alumni Association Board of Directors will convene in January 2018 to select the award recipients. The deliberations of the board will not be released.

5. Awardees are asked to attend the University of Colorado School of Medicine’s Annual Silver & Gold Alumni event held in May 2018 in Denver, Colorado.

6. It shall be the responsibility of the nominator to obtain the required CV or résumé and nominee contact information.

7. Nominations received, and judged to be qualified and complete, will be referred to the Medical Alumni Association Board of Directors. Nominators will be notified when the nomination process is complete.

8. Late or incomplete packages will not be forwarded for committee consideration. A nomination is no guarantee of an award.
