DATE: June 27, 2016

TO: Alumni of the University of Colorado School of Medicine

FROM: Wag Schorr, MD – Class of 1963
President, Medical Alumni Association

SUBJECT: Nominations for University of Colorado School of Medicine Alumni Association Silver and Gold Award, Distinguished Achievement Award, Humanitarian Award and the Distinguished Service Award

Each year the University of Colorado School of Medicine and the Medical Alumni Association bestows three awards to distinguished alumni who have gone on to perform outstanding research, fill positions of significance, and/or serve their communities in extraordinary ways. Because you are in a unique position to remember these exceptional medical professionals, the Medical Alumni Association seeks your help to identify these distinguished alumni who deserve recognition.

Below are descriptions of these awards:

- The Silver and Gold Award is the highest award the Medical Alumni Association can bestow. It is the policy of the Alumni Association to award the Silver and Gold Award for excellence in humanitarianism, citizenship and professionalism, for outstanding service to the community, and contributions to the art and science of medicine.

- The Distinguished Service Award recognizes those who have contributed outstanding service to the Alumni Association and to the University of Colorado School of Medicine.

- The Distinguished Achievement Award recognizes those who have demonstrated outstanding achievements benefiting their communities, the practice of medicine, the provision of health care, our Association, and/or the University of Colorado School of Medicine.

AWARD NOMINATION PROCESS:
1. Each year the Medical Alumni Association Board of Directors shall solicit names of nominees for these awards.

2. Silver and Gold, Distinguished Service, and Distinguished Achievement Award nominations must be submitted on the award nomination form and supported by at least one letter of recommendation. The complete nomination package must be submitted to the Office of Alumni Relations at the Anschutz Medical Campus.

3. Nomination Guidelines: No person may nominate him/herself. Elected officials may be nominated two years after completion of their term of office. All nominations shall be considered confidential.

4. The Medical Alumni Association Board of Directors will convene in December 2016 to select the award recipients. The deliberations of the board will not be released.

5. Awardees are asked to attend the University of Colorado School of Medicine’s Annual Silver & Gold Alumni event held May 25, 2017 in Denver, CO.

6. It shall be the responsibility of the nominator to obtain the required C/V or resume’ and nominee contact information.

7. Nominations received, and judged to be qualified and complete, will be referred to the Medical Alumni Association Board of Directors. Nominators will be notified when the nomination process is complete.

8. Late or incomplete packages will not be forwarded for committee consideration. A nomination is no guarantee of an award.

Please submit the completed form, letter of recommendation, nominee's current vitae, address, and telephone number by November 25, 2016 to the following contact:
