Why should a you consider the CSB?

1. Longitudinal Integrated Clerkship (LIC) model
   1. Patient continuity across specialties
   2. Preceptor continuity and mentorship
   3. Self-directed learning

2. Small cohort size, community

3. Community engagement
FAQ’s

• Will I get the same patient diversity in CS as I would in Denver?
  • Yes (CS population 431,834)

• Will I work with physicians who are CU Faculty?
  • Yes, all of your preceptors have CU faculty appointments and receive specific faculty development/training in the LIC model

• When will I take the shelf/subject exams during Phase III?
  • Throughout the year, not all at the end of the year (similar to Denver Health LIC)

• Can I participate in one of the “Tracks” as a CSB student?
  • YES
FAQ’s

• Will I be a competitive applicant for residency programs as part of a RMC/LIC?
  • Yes

• Do I have to apply to a primary care specialty as a CSB student?
  • No

• How/when will CSB campus selection take place?
  • May 2017 by CSB selection committee

• Can I request a change once campus assignment made?
  • Only if demonstrable personal or economic hardship

• How do I express an interest in the CSB?
  • Complete CSB essay
  • Complete campus preference form
