The Land Beyond the Sunset

A Curious Movie

SCREENING & DISCUSSION

Howie Movshovitz, PhD
Faculty, UCD College of Arts and Media,
Director of the Denver Silent Film Festival,
KUNC Film Critic and Contributor to NPR

Monday, November 14th
Noon-1:00pm
Fulginiti Pavilion for Bioethics and Humanities

The 1912 short, silent drama tells the story of Joe, an impoverished New York newsboy who lives with an abusive grandmother. Joe goes on an outing to the country with a social welfare group where he dares to dream of another more carefree life.

Selected for preservation in the US Film Registry by the Library of Congress as a culturally, historically and aesthetically significant film.