HOME TO
35 CLINICAL FACULTY
Working at Denver Health's Federally Qualified Health Clinics.

3 PRACTICE-BASED RESEARCH NETWORKS
With shared operations for two additional networks.

OVER 700 FACULTY MEMBERS
Including 138 regular faculty and 624 clinical and volunteer faculty.

THE EUGENE S. FARLEY, JR. HEALTH POLICY CENTER
A collaboration in primary care studies.

Ranked 5th in 2014 by U.S. News and World Report for family medicine training.

University of Colorado Hospital inpatient service includes operative obstetrics and care of newborns.

DEPARTMENT OF FAMILY MEDICINE

FACTS & FIGURES

Train 66 family medicine residents annually in 3 accredited programs.

Support specialized clinics and services in women's health, sports medicine, palliative care, geriatrics, behavioral health and integrated care, substance use treatment, cosmetics, and student health.

Home to the 2nd Largest family medicine department in the country

Win approximately $10 million of external research funding annually.

Shared teaching of nearly every medical student including: directing the required Foundations of Doctoring longitudinal course, a required 3rd year rural health clerkship, a rural health track, family medicine, community engagement, nutrition and preventive health interest groups, and various elective courses in years 1 through 4.

Leaders of the community engagement section of the University of Colorado's Clinical and Translational Science Award (CCTS).

80,000 ANNUAL VISITS
Are made to four family medicine practices that we sponsor.

Founder of 2040 Partners for Health a community-based participatory research partnership with five surrounding neighborhoods.

Shared research infrastructure with the Colorado Health Outcomes Program (COHO) which conducts $15 million of externally funded research per year.