Arts in Medicine Lectures will be in The Gossard Forum in the Fulginiti Pavilion @ 12 Noon

Jan 7  Thomas Beresford  Standing at Shakespeare’s Elbow: What Literature Can Tell Us About Human Adaptation
Jan 14 Alan Gilbert  Black Patriots and Loyalists
Jan 21 Holiday  No lecture
Jan 28 Jennifer Hellier  Anatomy in Clay
Feb 4 Tom Noel  Color-oddities: Strangest Things About the Highest State
Feb 11 Catherine O’Neill Thorn  Art from Ashes
Feb 18 Holiday  No lecture
Feb 25 Angel Abbud-Madrid  Where to Draw the Line? Mapping the US-Mexico Border
Mar 4 Marjorie Levine-Clark  I Always Prefer the Scissors: Isaac Baker Brown, Women’s Health, and Feminist Histories of Medicine
Mar 11 Spring Break  No lecture
Mar 18 Charles Hamlin  Mortality, Morality and Honor: The End-of-Life Paradigm
Mar 25 Larry Hergott  From “What Is This About?” to “The Potential for Greatness” – Experiences In Writing Medical Narrative and Poetry
April 1
April 8 John & Martha Carlin  A Symposium About Patient Empowerment
April 15 Shannon Robinson  The Life and Works of Edgar Degas: More Than Impressionism
April 22 Ronnie Yimsut  Facing the Khmer Rouge
April 29 Peter Mayerson  Play on End-of-Life Conversations
May 6 The Arrhythmias
May 13

Website for Arts and Humanities in Healthcare Program
www.medschool.ucdenver.edu/artshumanities
Click on “Calendar” to find schedule of events.