UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO DENVER
HEMATOLOGY/ONCOLOGY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

SELECTION POLICY

Applicants to the training program must be a graduate from a
1. Medical school in the United States or Canada accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education (LCME); or
2. Graduation from any College of Osteopathic Medicine accredited by the American Osteopathic Association (AOA; or
3. Graduation from medical school outside of the United States or Canada and possessing a current valid certificate from the Educational Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG) prior to appointment; or, have a full and unrestricted license to practice medicine in Colorado; or
4. Graduation from medical schools outside the United States and completion of a Fifth Pathway Program provided by an LCME – accredited medical school.
5. Individuals applying for Fellowship programs must document completion of an appropriate residency program, including an ACGME-accredited residency, or meet appropriate residency program including an ACGME-accredited residency or meet requirements as outlined in ACGME program requirements.

Residents in our program must be a U.S. citizen, lawful permanent resident, refugee, asylee, or possess the appropriate documentation to allow Resident to legally train at the University of Colorado Denver School of Medicine.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must have completed 3 years of internal medicine training, or have met the qualifications for “fast-tracking”.

Applicants must be eligible to hold a Colorado Medical License within one year of start of training.

The program does not discriminate based on sex, age, race, disability, sexual orientation, nation or origin.

Before matriculation, applicants will successfully complete their background check and provide the required documentation that they have successfully completed their previous training from the program director for medical school and residency training.