Cardiology

- Diagnosis and management of patients with arrhythmias and conduction abnormalities.
- Care for patients who require catheter based interventions.
- Diagnose, initially manage, and refer children with advanced or end stage heart failure and/or pulmonary hypertension to experts for medical therapy, ECMO, ventricular assist device and/or cardiac transplantation.
- Diagnosis and management of congenital or acquired cardiac problems.
- Diagnosis and management of patients with acute congenital or acquired cardiac problems requiring intensive care.
- Acquire the imaging skills required for all aspects of pediatric and congenital cardiology care.