Pulmonary

- Manage the use of supplemental respiratory equipment such as oxygen, ventilators, and airway clearance devices.
- Manage patients with acute complex respiratory disease in an ambulatory, emergency, or inpatient setting.
- Manage patients with complex chronic respiratory disease through all settings and phases of life.
- Demonstrate competence in communicating a new diagnosis of a life altering disease using a patient and family centered approach.
- Demonstrate competence in performing the common procedures of the pediatric pulmonary subspecialist.