TRAINING of the TRAINERS-TOT:
The DSM-5 ~Relevance to Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services in Health and Behavioral Health Care

Thursday and Friday
December 8th & 9th, 2016
9:00 a.m.- 4:00 p.m. each day

Location: Tramway Nonprofit Center
Community Training Room
3532 Franklin St
Denver, CO 80205

Brought to you by
SAMHSA
Substance Use and Mental Health Services Administration
www.samhsa.gov

Training Objectives

- Train & develop a capable workforce to train others in their communities on The DSM-5 /how it is relevant to culturally diverse behavioral responses/indicators and the individual’s cultural and health history.
- Train and develop a capable workforce to train others to understand the necessary alignment with the national standards CLAS standards for culturally and linguistically appropriate services in health/behavioral health, Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services

Who Should Attend

- Must have participated, trained & understand The DSM-5/Relevance to the CLAS Standards.
- Mental Health managers, and clinicians
- Dept. of Human Services directors, managers, and case workers
- System of care staff (wraparound facilitators and family advocates and their supervisors)
- School psychologists & social workers
- Counselors
- Probation officers
- Juvenile justice providers

Colorado’s Trauma Informed System of Care
In partnership with the Colorado Multi Ethnic Cultural Consortium

Presenter
Mita M Johnson: Ed.D , LPC, LMFT, LAC, MAC, SAP, ACS, AAMFT

Please return attached registration form by email to: Deborah Ward-White dwardwhite.fac@gmail.com
For questions call 720-299-3516
Attendance Location:
Tramway Nonprofit Center,
Community Training Room
3532 Franklin St
Denver, CO 80205

Please complete registration form:
Training of the Trainers (TOT)
The Diagnostic Statistical Manual-Edition 5
DSM-5: The Relevance of Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Service Delivery

This training is intended for those that participated/trained in previous DSM-5/ Relevance of Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services
Colorado Trauma Informed System of Care Communities of Excellence (COE) Staff,
Department of Human Services Staff,
COE -Community Mental Health Staff, Centers for Independence Staff, Developmental Disability Resource Center Staff, Develop mental Pathways and Probation, Juvenile Justice, Education, Higher Education, Social Workers, Case Workers, Child and Family Psychologist, Therapists, Providers,
All Staff Affiliated with the Colorado Trauma
Informed System of Care Communities of Excellence

There is a fee of $150.00 each for training manual, materials package.

Name__________________________________________
Agency Name_____________________________________
Phone #__________________________________________
Email Address____________________________________

Please complete registration info to attend.
Please send registration form to
Deborah Ward-White (dwardwhite.fac@gmail.com) ph#720-299-3516
Thank You!