In accepting this offer of a place in the 2017 freshman medical school class, you are, agreeing to abide by the rules of the School of Medicine particularly as they apply to the documents currently posted on the Accepted Student Site and those that will be posted in the future from this point forward. Please read each document carefully as they are crucial to the effective functioning of our school.

You should be aware that the Admissions Committee will evaluate the personal behavior, decorum, and conduct of potential medical school students, and if any significant breach of personal conduct comes to our attention, we reserve the right to review your suitability for admission to our medical school. Your admission into the freshmen medical school class is subject to rescission at any time if the school of medicine should learn that any information you have provided as part of the application process is false or if your academic performance or behavior between the date of admission and the date of matriculation is deemed unacceptable by the School of Medicine. You have an affirmative obligation to immediately notify the Office of Admissions if your academic performance deteriorates post admission or your academic status is changed at your current institution. Furthermore, you are obligated to inform the school of medicine immediately if post admission you are charged with any felony or drug related misdemeanor. Your failure to inform the School of Medicine shall be grounds for a rescission of your acceptance or dismissal from the School of Medicine.

Cost of attendance can be viewed at the Financial Aid web site. Tuition and fees are subject to revision by the Regents of the University of Colorado. Students who are classified as Accountable at matriculation continue to be Accountable through graduation even if they become Colorado residents.

I accept a place in the 2017 freshman class at the University of Colorado, School of Medicine. In order to accept this offer I will submit a $200 deposit by July 3, 2017. I will also submit this signed University of Colorado School of Medicine contract within two weeks of receiving my acceptance. I understand that if I fail to appear for the required fall orientation in August of 2017 without notifying the medical school admissions staff of my intentions or whereabouts, my place in the class may be forfeited.
