

National Western Stock Show Scholarship for Rural Health

The National Western Stock Show Foundation provides a scholarship to a first-year medical student committed to rural primary care practice. The NWSS Scholarship is for a student from a rural community in Colorado or Wyoming with plans to practice primary care in a rural community in Colorado or Wyoming.

Information and Requirements:

- Up to $6,000 per year, renewable for 4 years
- The National Western Stock Show Scholar serves as an Ambassador for the School of Medicine and must attend various National Western Stock Show activities during the year.
- Send a one-page essay providing information about your rural experience and future rural plans. Applicants should include the name of their rural community and the name and town of their high school. Applicants should discuss why they plan to return to a rural community.
- Applications must be received by March 25, 2011. Please include “National Western Scholarship”, your name and AMCAS ID # at the top of your essay.

Send completed essay for this scholarship along with your financial release form to:

University of Colorado School of Medicine
Attention: Terri Wood
13120 East 19th Avenue, C292
Aurora, CO 80045

Or

Email at terri.wood@ucdenver.edu

Or

Fax 303-724-6409