HMS Fellowship in Patient Safety and Quality

Fellowship positions available July 1, 2016

APPLICATION DEADLINE: October 16, 2015

- Innovative 2-year program to create future leaders in patient safety and quality
- Open to physicians (any specialty) who are in or have completed a residency or fellowship program
- Includes didactics and extensive hands-on experience in organizational quality and safety
- Includes a per annum stipend and tuition paid MPH through the Harvard School of Public Health
- Each fellow will be based at a Harvard teaching institution and will work with a mentor at that institution

A collaborative effort among Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, Brigham and Women’s Hospital, Boston Children’s Hospital, Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, Massachusetts General Hospital, Partners HealthCare, and CRICO/Risk Management Foundation of the Harvard Medical Institutions

Web site: http://www.hms.harvard.edu/hfpsq

Inquiries: gbommarito@partners.org