Join us to hear from community and academic partners who have a rich history working in, with, and for community. Understand what it means to show up in community--literally and figuratively! Learn essential skills for creating authentic partnerships for sustainable community-engaged research. This forum has protected time for community and academic experts to answer your questions. Come "show up" to lunch and learn with us!

More info? Contact kaylee.rivera@cuanschutz.edu