Benefits for Colorado’s Children with Special Health Care Needs
Thursday, October 23, 2014: 10:00-11:30 a.m.

We invite you to join us for an update on benefits for Colorado’s children and youth with special health care needs. This webinar will provide an overview of the SSI, Medicaid, Medicaid Buy In programs and Medicaid transportation services. It will also cover eligibility and recent updates on Medicaid Waivers for children and youth with special health care needs.

Following this webinar, the audience will review and have current resources for:
- Medicaid and the Medicaid Buy In program, the Medicaid transportation services, and the programs’ eligibility and application process for children and youth from birth to 21 years of age
- SSI benefits, eligibility and the application process for children and youth from birth to 21 years of age
- Eligibility for the Medicaid Waivers for children and youth from birth to 21 years of age and a recent update on policies in 2014

Moderator: Cordelia Robinson Rosenberg, PhD, RN - Director, JFK Partners, Professor of Pediatrics and Psychiatry

Speakers:
- Jeff Helm, HCPF, Healthy Communities Program and Contract Manager
- Monica Ochoa, Public Relations, SSI
- Carol Meredith, Director, Arc of Arapahoe Douglas County
- Marijo Rymer, Director, Arc Colorado
