Crossing the Divide: Cultural and Linguistic Perspectives in Evaluation and Treatment of Autism Spectrum Disorder and Other Developmental Disabilities

Friday, September 12, 2014 – 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

This meeting of CANDO will provide updates on a number of activities in relationship to goals in the strategic plan. The educational feature will focus on cultural and linguistic perspectives of evaluation and treatment for autism spectrum disorder and other developmental disabilities. All interested individuals are welcome to attend in person or by webinar. Be sure to register.

Objectives:

1. To provide an overview of the data regarding under-identification and misidentification of ASD/DD in different ethnic populations;
2. To describe some of the specific challenges in evaluation and treatment;
3. To explore parent perspectives on evaluation and treatment.
