Back to School – Integrating Health into Individualized Plans
Thursday, October 24, 2013: 10:00‐11:30 a.m.

With students back in school, please join us for a stimulating conversation about the role of health in individualized plans for kids with special health care needs. This webinar will explore the unique differences between IFSP’s, IEPs and 504 plans and how health concerns can be addressed within these planning documents. This webinar will feature a panel of experts to provide perspectives from education, health and a family.

Following this webinar, the audience will understand:
- The differences between IFSP, IEP and 504 plans.
- How these plans integrate health needs.
- Fundamental strategies to engage families in developing effective plans.

Speakers:
Eileen Forlenza, Family and Community Engagement Specialist, CDPHE – Moderator
Jane Gerberding, HCP Nurse Consultant, CDPHE
Kathy Patrick, Colorado Dept of Education
Amy Speers, HCP Nurse, Tri County Health Department
Lori Parker, Parent Advisor, Community Parent Resource Center, Aurora, CO
