Supporting Medically Fragile Infants Transition from the NICU to a Medical Home
October 25, 2012 10-11:30 – JFK/HCP

Presenters:
Barbara Deloian, PhD, RN, Special Kids Special Care
Jane Gerberding, RN, BSN, Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment
Lori McLean, RN, BSN, HCP Coordinator Boulder County Health Department
Kathleen Bolejack, RN, BSN, HCP Care Coordinator Tri County Health Department Tami Roberts, RN, BSN, Director of Community Health Services, and Katelin Bricker, RN, BSN, HCP Care Coordinator Mesa County Health Department
Leah Brines RN BSN, <Leah.D.Brines@kp.org - Kaiser Permanente

Objectives:
1. Describe Colorado’s premature, late premature and medically at risk infant population
   Handouts – CO Premature and Late Premature Infants Fact Sheet “Did you know?”
   Data 2005-2010
2. Review the Action Steps that have been identified by the Colorado Key Stakeholder Premature Infant Summit in May 2012.
   Toolkit for the Follow-up Care of the Premature Infant;
   http://www.nichq.org/resources/Premature_Infant_FollowUp_Toolkit.html
3. Describe several local implementation efforts that support premature and medically fragile infant’s transition from the NICU to a medical home.

Agenda:
10:00 AM Welcome - Jane Gerberding

10:05 AM Supporting a Medical Home Approach for the Premature and Medically Fragile infant
   • Key Stakeholder Colorado Premature Infant Summit - Background and Action Steps -
     Barbara Deloian/ Jane Gerberding

10:30 AM Colorado Local Community Supports for Parents of Medically Fragile Infants:
   Partners, Challenges and Success
10:30 – 10:40 A. Boulder County Public Health - Lori Mc Lean
10:30 – 10:50 B. Mesa County Public Health -Tami Roberts and Katelin Bricker
10:50 – 11:00 C. Tri-County Public Health – Special Infant Project - Kathleen Bolejack
11:00 – 11:10 D. Kaiser Permanente– Perinatal Home Care Program – Leah Brines

11:15 AM Questions and Answers
11:25 AM Announcements and reminder to complete the evaluation

11:30 Thank You