Clinical Immersion Experience

MALAWI  |  January 3 - 18, 2019

PROGRAM FEATURES
Review, critique, and analyze health care management options for common clinical presentations

Provide patient care in the clinical setting of Nkhotakota District Hospital and community health centers. These rotations will include antenatal/gyn/family planning care, OB and, pediatrics, and adult primary care

Explore determinants of ill health including nutrition, poverty, inequity, and environmental degradation

Experience health care outside of the United States to better understand variances between systems and individuals’ expectations

COURSE INFORMATION
2 Credits | NURS 5899

ELIGIBILITY
Graduate student in College of Nursing
One semester of clinical experience
Practicing PAs and NPs also welcome to apply

PROGRAM COST
$4,612 (does not include airfare, some meals, personal expenses, visa fees)

PROGRAM FACULTY
Dr. Jennifer Fisher | jennifer.fisher@ucdenver.edu

APPLICATION DEADLINE
October 1, 2018
ucdenver.edu/StudyAbroad