

Graduate Programs Office
PhD Course Offering Plan

All information is subject to change depending upon enrollment and faculty availability. Please contact your advisor or the Graduate Programs Office at 303-724-8503 for further information.

All PhD didactic courses are offered in a blended format beginning with an on-campus intensive followed by online instruction. Occasionally courses may be offered in a completely online format.

Course #	Course Title	Semester
		Fall	Spring	Summer
NURS 6846	Guided Research (variable credit)	X	X	X
NURS 6856	Independent Study (variable credit)	X	X	X
NURS 7000	Philosophy of Human Science (3)		X
NURS 7020	Methods of Disciplined Inquiry in Nursing (3)		X
NURS 7030	Discipline of Nursing (3)	X
NURS 7120	Knowledge Development in Nursing (3)			X
NURS 7300	Qualitative Empirical Research (3)		X
NURS 7310	Qualitative Interpretive Research (3)	X
NURS 7400	Experimental Design and Analysis (3)	X
NURS 7410	Multivariate Design & Analysis (3)		X
NURS 7652	Quality & Cost-Effective Outcomes: Health Systems Perspectives (3 credits)		X
NURS 7653	Cost/Quality Outcomes: A Micro-Level Focus (3)	X
NURS 7713	Seminar in Human Experience of Health, Illness & Healing (3)	2009
NURS 7714	Selected Topics in Human Experience of Health Illness & Healing (3)	2008, 2010
NURS 7846	PhD Program Research Practicum (3)	X	X	X
NURS 8990	Dissertation (1-10)	Register for the section number of dissertation advisor/mentor		