Pride, unity, and opportunities- these three are prominent qualities which are possessed by members of the National Black Nurses Association (NBNA). Founded in 1971 on the heels of segregation, with a deep-seated history of fighting for equality and civil rights, the NBNA promotes excellence. NBNA aims to, “Influence health care services for black people and to promote the inclusion of blacks in nursing education and nursing leadership positions”. Our mission is, “To represent and provide a forum for black nurses to advocate for and implement strategies to ensure access to the highest quality of healthcare for persons of color.” Become a part of something great! NBNA membership benefits include:

- Subscription to the Journal of the National Black Nurses Association
- Direct electronic mailing on nursing and health care issues
