May 19, 2015

In this issue
Students Matched into Residency Programs | What's Up in DOPS? | CU Pharmacy Perspectives Blog | Graduation around the corner | Preceptors Honored for Service to School | In the News |

Students Matched into Residency Programs

Congratulations to our fourth-year students who recently matched into PGY-1 residency programs. To date, 38 fourth-year students and one recent alum matched into ASHP's Residency Match Program through both the initial match process and the scramble. Students include Joselyn Benabe, Andrea Boyce, Caitlin Butler, Sara Byrnes, Michael Casias, Frank Colletti, Carolyn Dahlman, Christina Davis, Nicole Dimaano, Emily Elwell, Brian Fox, Jenna Gorrell, Liane Horiuchi, Ashley Huntsberry, Natalie Kallhoff, Robbie Kattappuram, Monika Lach, Philip Leong, Mengyan Li, Kelsey Melander, Arya Mishra, Kaitlyn Moorehead, Sarah Newman, Atit Patel, Kathleen Paulson, Trang Phan, Azhin Qadir, Lindsay Rumold, Stephen Shaw, Suhair Shawar, Ankit Shukla, Hai Tran, Kellie Vanderburg, Laura Vriesman, Jarod Weidner, Kirby Welston, Cecilia Wong, Regina Yun, Renjbar Zebari. In addition, Cameron LaChappelle and Deidra Newbrough were selected for Indian Health Services (IHS) PGY-1 residencies. Also, 12 graduates from our 2014 class matched to PGY-2 residencies. Congratulations! If we missed anyone, please contact Kristina Proffitt to be added to the list.

CU Pharmacy Perspectives Blog

To learn about the latest news happening at the school, subscribe to our blog. We post about a variety of topics from the perspectives of students, faculty and alumni and, if you have a topic you would like to blog about, contact Dana Brandorff.

Graduation around the Corner

May 22 marks commencement ceremonies for the class of 2015. The campus commencement starts at 8:30 a.m. in Boettcher Commons followed at 10 a.m. by our school's hooding ceremony and convocation on the lawn south of the Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences Building. Look for the special graduation edition of Pharmacy Perspectives, which will profile the backgrounds, hobbies and accomplishments of the new graduates.

Preceptors Honored for Service to School

The school hosted its annual Preceptor Dinner Apr. 23 at Fogo de Chão to honor all active CU Pharmacy preceptors. This year marked the 5th anniversary of the event and several preceptors were recognized for their excellence and service to the school. To view the full list of preceptor awardees from the 2014-2015 school year, click here.

In the News

- 9NEWS covered our annual Drug Disposal Event, which resulted in the collection of 583 pounds of unwanted medications.
- Three pharmacy students were highlighted by CU Today for helping spearhead, along with students from the Anschutz Campus, a student-run clinic that serves community members in need.
- Dr. Kari Franson spoke with Forbes about the potential risks of consuming marijuana-infused edibles.