

Drop off Expired and Unused Medications

RXDISPOSAL

DRIVE UP. DROP OFF. DRIVE OUT.

SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 10 A.M. – 2 P.M. • ANSCHUTZ MEDICAL CAMPUS (I-225 & COLFAX)

Cleaning out your medicine cabinet and getting rid of unused, outdated or expired medications is as easy as 1, 2, 3.

- 1. Drive up to the collection area at 13001 E. 17th Place (building 500/Fitzsimons Army Hospital) on the Anschutz Medical Campus at I-225 and Colfax Avenue.
- 2. Drop off your outdated, unused, or expired medications.
- 3. Drive out.

The University of Colorado Skaggs School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences students and faculty, and police officers will be on hand to supervise and assist with secure eco-friendly disposal. In addition to disposing of your unused medications, pharmacists and pharmacy students will be available to answer questions about the medications you are currently taking.

WHAT TO DROP OFF:

- Expired or unused prescription medications including liquids, pills, capsules, patches, medicated ointments and lotions, etc.
- Over-the-counter medications and vitamins
- Pet medications

We will accept medications from consumer's medicine cabinets only. Nursing homes and facilities are excluded.
