What is the Center for Pre-Collegiate and Academic Outreach and the Center for Identity and Inclusion Summer Bridge Program?

It is a program designed to allow former Pre-Collegiate graduates who plan to attend CU Denver to get an early start.

- Enroll in three college courses
- Become acclimated with the college campus and connect with the college community
- Meet student support staff to assist with the transition to the University of Colorado Denver
- Receive a Peer Coach who will help students through their first year
- Priority is given to Pre-Collegiate graduates.

Why Participate in the Summer Bridge Program?

- Get a head start in preparing for a positive college experience
- Become familiar with the campus
- Learn the rigors of college classes
- Experience new adventures
- Make new friends

Program Eligibility

Students who wish to participate in the Center for Pre-Collegiate and Academic Outreach and the Center for Identity and Inclusion Bridge Program must be incoming freshmen who have participated in one of the CU Pre-Collegiate Programs and have been admitted and plan to attend the University of Colorado Denver in the fall following high school graduation. Students are required to:

- Complete the application
- Sign a commitment letter to attend the University of Colorado Denver
- Attend all five weeks of the Summer Program
- Attend all activities

How much will it cost to participate in the program?

IT’S FREE! This program is at no cost to participating students. Students receive college credits.
