Documentation Requirements

The University of Colorado Denver requires official transcripts to be submitted as part of the application process. They must be in the original language and include a certified English translation. Official transcripts are those that arrive at our office in an envelope sealed by the institution or local ministry of education. If you do not see your country listed, please contact our office.

Freshman Applicants: Along with official transcripts, please also submit a copy of the final diploma if the program has been completed.

International students studying in the US: The University of Colorado Denver requires official transcripts from your US high school, as well as transcripts for any secondary school coursework completed prior to enrollment in the US. SAT/ACT tests are required for international students who have graduated from a U.S. high school.

Transfer Applicants: If applicable, official transcripts from all colleges/universities attended should also be submitted from all countries studied in. College/university transcripts are always required even if the applicant did not complete a degree or program at the previous institution. Official high school transcripts are not required for transfer applicants who have completed more than 30 semester hours of college/university coursework.

Graduate Applicants: Submit official post-secondary transcripts/statement of marks, corresponding certified English translations if necessary, and a copy of the final diploma. Please contact us if you have any questions regarding documentation.
