International Freshman Scholarships

Who is eligible?
Eligible candidates demonstrate academic excellence (GPA requirement varies per award), are F-1 or J-1 visa holders, admitted fully to the university, and enrolled full-time (12 semester hours or more).

How much can I receive?
Students can receive up to half-off tuition. Scholarships range from $1,000 to $16,250.

How do I apply?
All students are considered on the basis of their admissions application. Upon admission, students receive notification which lets them know if they are eligible for any CU Denver scholarships and includes a link to ScholarLYNX.

A separate application is required for all international scholarships. Visit ScholarLYNX (ucdenver.academicworks.com) and enter keyword ‘international’ to view scholarships for international students. Scholarship applications must be received by January 15th for consideration.

Is it renewable?
Most scholarships are renewable for up to eight semesters of undergraduate study provided that scholarship recipients remain enrolled full-time, maintain the required GPA, and are enrolled full-time.

When will I be notified?
Notification occurs on a rolling basis.
