A. INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this policy is to limit the level of cash on hand in the University of Colorado Denver | Anschutz Medical Campus (“the university”) Bursar’s Offices.

The primary authority and requirement for this policy is derived from auditor recommendations. It is the responsibility of the university Controller or designee to ensure compliance with this policy.

This fiscal rule applies to all faculty, staff, students, visitors, and patients at the university.

B. DEFINITIONS

Petty Cash Funds are funds used for the payment of emergency and incidental expenses. Postage, express mail, telegrams, and other incidental expenses may be paid from such monies when not otherwise obtainable by procurement card or other convenient means. Petty cash funds are not to be used to make change.

C. POLICY STATEMENT
1. Personal Check Cashing
   The Central Cashier in the Bursar’s Office will not cash personal checks from any individual.

2. Petty Cash Fund Reimbursement
   Reimbursement to university petty cash funds is accomplished by warrant payable to the Petty Cash custodian. The Bursar’s Offices may cash university petty cash fund reimbursement warrants, subject to cash availability. The University has also arranged for petty cash reimbursement checks to be cashed at any Public Service Credit Union branch.
