Flowing Through Conflict
4th Annual Visibly Human Symposium

“Pure water is the world's first and foremost medicine.”
~Slovakian Proverb

Presented by the Health Sciences Library and the Center for Bioethics and Humanities’ Program for Arts and Humanities in Healthcare

Please join us for a thought-provoking conversation about the health of our region’s waterways with writer and photographer Peter McBride, author of The Colorado River: Flowing Through Conflict

- April 5th, 2012, Shore Family Auditorium, Nighthorse-Campbell Building, Anschutz Medical Campus
- Presentation starting at 2:30 pm
- Reception and book signing at 3:30 pm

Event co-sponsors:
Aurora Water
AMC Bookstore
BRANCH: Bridging Research and Aurora Neighborhoods for Community Health
Chancellors Task Force on Sustainability, University of Colorado Denver | Anschutz Medical Campus
Colorado Foundation for Water Education
Department of Visual Arts, College of Arts & Media, University of Colorado Denver
Water for People
Western Waters Policy Program, Natural Resources Law Center, University of Colorado Boulder