   1. The Faculty shall consist of the Chancellor and Vice Chancellors, the Deans and Associate or Assistant Deans and members of the teaching and research staff as defined by the individual schools of the HSC (in Appendix). The representative faculty governing body of each school shall determine how representatives are selected for the HSC Faculty Assembly. The Assembly shall assure that all HSC schools are represented.    2. The responsibilities, organization, and operations of the HSC Faculty Assembly are established in these Constitution and Bylaws.
   3. The HSC Faculty Assembly represents the faculty of the individual HSC schools and participates in the governance of the HSC with the Chancellor and appropriate administrative officers.

Article II.
HSC FACULTY ASSEMBLY RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES
A. General Powers and Duties.
   The HSC faculty exists and derives its powers from authority delegated to it by the Board of Regents (Article 5. E. 5). These Constitution and Bylaws provide a system of governance of the HSC consistent with the laws of the State of Colorado and the Laws of the Regents. The HSC Faculty Assembly shall be the representative governing body of the HSC campus faculty as defined by the individual HSC Schools. Nothing in these articles shall be interpreted as modifying those powers delegated to the faculty of the individual schools of the HSC by the Laws of the Regents (see http://www.cu.edu/regents/Laws/Article5.html).
B. HSC Faculty Assembly Mission.
   The responsibilities and duties of the HSC Faculty Assembly shall include the following:

The HSC Faculty Assembly shall have jurisdiction over matters that affect the HSC campus as a whole. The University of Colorado Faculty Council shall have jurisdiction only when matters affect substantially more than the HSC. In the event of a dispute between the HSC Faculty Assembly and the faculty government of one of its component schools, a conference committee shall be formed of two members from each disputing body, who then will select three other faculty members to constitute a committee of seven. The committee will select its chair, hold hearings and consultations with administrative officials and decide where jurisdiction lies. A similar procedure will be used to decide jurisdiction in disputes between the HSC Faculty Assembly and the University of Colorado Faculty Council. Actions from these processes shall not intrude upon individual academic freedoms as set forth in the Laws of the Regents, Article 5.D.
