Research and Creative Activities Day

Showcasing the scholarly activities of undergraduate and graduate students on the UCDHSC Downtown Denver Campus

10:00AM-2:15PM on 15 April 2005
North Classroom Building on the UCDHSC Downtown Denver Campus

9:30 - 10:00 Check-in (student contributors)
North Classroom Building Atrium

10:00 - 10:10 Welcome, opening remarks, and introductions
Mark Heckler, Provost, UCDHSC Downtown Denver Campus
North Classroom Building 1130

10:10 - 10:30 Racking the Focus: An Exploration of Episodic Television
Craig Volk, Assistant Professor of Television, Film and Video, with Lori Andrew, Amanda Van Nostrand, Jon Glidden, and Nate Bakke (College of Arts and Media)

10:30 - 10:50 National Student Advertising Competition: “Visit Florida”
Vicki Lane, Assistant Professor of Marketing, with members of the UCDHSC Chapter of the American Advertising Federation including Dina Isyemina and Samuel O. Smith (School of Business)

10:50 - 11:10 Copper Nickel
Jake York, Assistant Professor of English, with Linda Ruth Carter,
Joshua Ware, Amanda Bruns, Keegan Corrigan, and Anneliese Rix
(College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and College of Arts and Media)

11:10 - 11:50 Aha! Creative Insight in the Brain
John Kounios, Professor of Psychology, Drexel University

11:50 - 12:00 Closing remarks and recognition of UROP Grant Recipients,
Mark Heckler

12:00 - 2:00 Student Contributed Session
Light refreshments
North Classroom Building Atrium

2:00 - 2:15 Closing remarks and awards for outstanding presentations
Dorothy Yates, Interim Assistant Vice Chancellor for Research Administration, UCDHSC Downtown Denver Campus

Research and Creative Activities Day is sponsored by the Office of Academic and Student Affairs, as well as the Departments of Biology and Psychology (CLAS) and UCDHSC Downtown Denver Campus Student Government.