Peer to Peer Mentoring

Don’t hesitate to reach out to your Peer Advisor with any questions you may have.

If you are still interested in helping transition your fellow Veterans to CU Denver, we welcome your application.

Support

CU Denver Student Veterans looking for additional support, Jill Wilschke, LMFT provides military competent counseling services though the CU Denver Counseling Center. Jill is always accompanied by Lulu, her canine co-therapist. Jill’s professional background includes working with active duty, military dependents and student veterans. If you would like more information or to set up an appointment you can stop by the counseling center (Tivoli, room 454), call (303)556-4372 or email Jill directly at jill.wilschke@ucdenver.edu.

Certifications

Anschutz Veteran Representative: The Veteran Services representative will be available on Thursdays 9am—1pm and 2pm—5pm in the Financial Aid Office.

Past Due Over $50 Holds: All students under the Post 9-11 GI Bill will have this hold until the VA tuition and fee payment is posted to your account. If you need to register for classes, send and email to vaoffice@ucdenver.edu with your name, student ID number and “Need to register, remove hold” in subject line. This hold can only be removed for the day and will be replaced automatically at 5pm. You must have your portion paid before this hold will be lifted.

Boots to Suits

The Boots to Suits database and the necessary steps for signing up has been overhauled. Emails were sent to our list of participants who had previously signed up to have them resubmit under the new system. The new system has checks and balances to ensure students are moving though and completing the Boots to Suits program. Please bear with us while we perfect our process! If you have any questions, email bootstosuits@ucdenver.edu
