Academic advising at CU Denver is a partnership characterized by shared responsibility between the student, advisor, and campus professionals who advance the university mission of student success. Preparing for your advising appointment is critical, here are some tips for meeting with your advisor.

Preparing for Your Advising Appointment

- Schedule your appointment early and in advance.
- Review your degree audit report on UCD Access.
- Review notes and handouts from previous advising meetings, and bring it with you to your next appointment.
- Make a list of questions.
- Prepare a tentative schedule or list of classes in which you are interested.
- Be prepared to discuss your educational goals and plans.
- Be prepared to take notes.
- Contact the advising office if you need to cancel or reschedule your appointment.
