INTRODUCTION

Welcome to CU Denver!

We are excited for you as you embark on your college journey. The transition to college may seem overwhelming at times, but rest assured! The CU Denver Survival Guide is here to assist you in your transition to university life. Compiled by students in the Peer Advocate Leader (PAL) Program, this informational guide is intended to help all students, particularly new students, become acquainted with the university.

Within this guide, you will find helpful resources regarding the following topics:

- Academics
- Campus engagement
- Campus health and recreation
- Campus and commuter life
- Tips from current students
- Campus maps

This guide is a valuable resource that will not only benefit you in your first semester at CU Denver, but it will also serve as an asset throughout your college career. It is our hope and desire that by reading this guide, you will be equipped to confidently begin your Lynx life. We wish you the best of luck in your college career!

HOUSING

On Campus:
When you live in CU Denver Housing and Dining at Campus Village, you’re living close to everything and right in the middle of an exciting community of students and friends. You’ll settle into a safe, comfortable living space that has all the conveniences and amenities you need, including 24-hour desk service, live-in staff, on-site dining and a variety of floor plans!

For more information on student housing visit: ucdenver.edu/housing

Off-Campus:
Wondering how to connect with roommates or are you looking for off-campus housing options? Either way, the Commuter Services Office can assist you with your off-campus resource needs. Our office provides students with information on finding roommates, accessing public transportation/commuting, and off-campus housing. The Commuter Services and Housing Fair in the Spring is a great opportunity to talk with landlords, on campus, and off campus resources all in one space!

For more information on commuter services visit:
ucdenver.edu/commuterserves

STUDENT TIPS

“Try to use your time on campus wisely and use it to your advantage. If you have a four hour break between classes, use it to study! If you don’t have work to do, go to office hours, explore campus and make friends. It will benefit you in the long run.”

- JAMIE, SENIOR

“Get involved! By getting involved you’ll be able to meet new people and make friends as well as getting to know your new school. Also make sure that you become familiar with resources that are helpful, like the computer labs, professor’s office location, etc.”

- YOVANA, SENIOR

“Spend more time on campus! Don’t just go to classes then go home. Check out the events going on that day, join a club, or study with classmates in the library.”

- ABIGAIL, SENIOR

CU DENVER Sentry

Our campus newspaper provides students with information about campus issues and events and strives to incorporate investigative reporting, feature articles, and items of general interest to its campus readership. With general management and production staff comprised of students, the newspaper provides a means of professional growth and development for writers, journalists, artists, and other students.

CU Denver Email

CU Denver email is the official means of communication at the university. It is imperative that you check your e-mail messages regularly - at least once a day- to get class updates, tuition reminders, notes from advisors, probation warnings, and other super important info.

If you have any problems accessing your account, please contact the IT Helpdesk right away: www.ucdenver.edu/its
TIVOLI STATION

The Tivoli Station is the Auraria Campus bookstore. They offer a variety of services and products including:

- Textbooks
- Technology
- Supplies
- Merchandise and clothing specific to CCD, MSU, CU Denver, and Colorado
- General reading materials

Contact Information:
Phone: 303-556-4286

ID CENTER

The ID Center (Commuter Resource Center located inside the Tivoli) provides information about programs and services available to the campus community related to commuting to campus, ID cards, RTD CollegePass Program, off-campus housing, getting around campus, and much more.

Student ID Cards

- Campus ID cards are distributed by the ID Center for current students, faculty, and staff.
- New students receive free student ID cards if they attend a New Student Orientation.
- Campus ID fee: $20

What students need to bring:
- A picture ID
- Proof of current registration. For example:
  - Class schedule printout
  - Tuition bill
  - Receipt showing a breakdown of fees

RTD Passes

CollegePass Program

- The RTD CollegePass Smart Card allows students unlimited rides on the RTD bus and light rail systems throughout the Denver Metro area.
- Students must present a valid student ID in order to receive a pass.
- The CollegePass Program is included in student fees every semester if students are registered for one or more credit hours on the Auraria Campus.

Costs

- First CollegePass card is free
- Replacement card fee: $10 (a $5 fee is charged if you are transferring institutions–must present original card)
- Please contact RTD directly if you experience issues related to technology or Smart Card readers for the CollegePass

Locker Rentals

- Lockers are located in Tivoli and the PE Event Center
- Visit the ID Center to rent a locker on a semester basis
- Cost: $15/semester

Lost and Found

- All lost and found items from Tivoli are held for six weeks at the ID Center. Unclaimed items are then disposed or donated.

Misplace Something Valuable?

- Some items of high value are collected by the Auraria Campus Police Department (ACPD). If your item is not at the ID Center, please check with the ACPD at 303-556-5000 or visit their office in Tivoli 228.

WIFI INFORMATION

Wireless access is available at CU Denver for guests and authenticated users, including university faculty, staff, sponsored users, and students.

Connection Instructions:
Authenticated users must enter their University domain user-ID and password prior to gaining wireless VPN access, which includes access to internal resources and the Internet. Users who are not authenticated can gain access through the guest networks on campus.
CAMPUS

STUDENT TIP

“Make sure that you plan for how long it will take to get to school/home, especially during the winter (spring semester). When it snows, professors usually don’t cancel class and you have to come in and it takes twice as long when commuting.”

- JAMIE, SENIOR

CAREER CENTER

The Career Center helps students find jobs on and off campus, as well as offering helpful workshops and advising sessions. They can help students apply for jobs, improve and build resumes, and declare the right major.

Career planning services include:

WRITING HELP

The Writing Center

The Writing Center at CU Denver seeks to build confident, accomplished writers through the teaching of discipline-specific knowledge, the development of critical thinking skills, and the practice of audience-centered writing. Their students develop better writing skills while improving their texts. Staff assist students with writing ideas, organization, grammar, references, etc.

The staff at the Writing Center are more than happy to help with just about any problem you can have with writing. All you have to do is make an appointment and pay them a visit. It is probably one of the best things you can do to make sure your writing is the best it can be.

Writing Center Locations:

North Classroom, Room 4014
Campus Village at Auraria, 3rd Floor
Common Room

Auraria Library, First Floor
Business School, Lobby

PRINTING

Computer Labs

All computers are connected to high-speed black and white printers, and each student is allowed up to 350 sheets (700 pages, front and back) of printing per semester, included in student fees. The quotas are reset on the first day of each semester. There are also a number of computers equipped with high-definition scanners available on a first-come, first-served basis.

How to Print:
1. Log in to your UCD account
2. Navigate to what you want to print
3. Setup your printing preferences (note that each lab may have different print defaults - check with a lab monitor if you have any questions).
4. Print your document

Note: If you don’t know your username and password, speak with the person at the front desk, and they can set one up for you.

DISABILITY RESOURCES AND SERVICES OFFICE

The Office of Disability Resources and Services is dedicated to the full participation of students with disabilities in their academic environments.

They provide assistance to qualified students with disabilities and coordinate reasonable accommodations in order to provide them equal access to the institution’s programs, activities, and services. In addition, DRS works continuously with members of the campus community to identify solutions to attitudinal and architectural barriers that might impede the successful completion of studies.

The Office of Disability Resources and Services is most efficient and effective when an aid or service is requested well in advance by a student. Students are encouraged to take the following important steps to obtain accommodations:

1) Make an appointment with the Coordinator of DRS six weeks in advance before services are required.
2) Provide the Coordinator with documentation of the disability at the first appointment or as soon as it is available.

REGISTERING FOR CLASSES

Step 1
Log on to www.UCDenver.edu/UCDAccess with your User ID and Password.

Step 2
Once you have logged in, select the “Student Center” tab on the left hand side. Next, click on the “All Student Functions” tab that pops-up.

Step 3
To search for classes, click the “Search for Classes” option on the left hand side of the pop-up window.
Step 4

In the new window, select “CU Denver” as your institution, “Spring 2015 CU Denver” as your term (or your desired term), “Denver Campus” as your campus, and enter the subject you’re looking for (in this case, “Communication”).

Depending on if you want a lower/higher division class, choose your course career.

Step 5

If you want a more specific search, click “Additional Search Criteria” and you’ll find options to search for specific meeting times, meeting days of the week, location, among other options.
Step 6

Next, you are presented with your search results. Click on the different green arrows to learn more.

Step 7

Once you find a class that you want, click the “Select” button on the right hand side to add the class to your shopping cart. In this case, the student will be registering for COMM 1001-001, TuTh 11am-12:15pm.

Step 8

Next you must confirm that you want to add this class to your shopping cart.

Step 9

Once you get the confirmation that your class has been added to your shopping cart, you can now search for more classes. Click “New Search” or “Modify Search” to continue searching for classes. Follow steps 4-9 to add another class to your shopping cart.
Once you’re ready to enroll, click the “Enroll” tab at the top of the pop-up page. Select the correct semester/term then click “Continue.”

Next, you must select the classes from your shopping cart that you want to enroll in. Click the “Proceed to Step 2 of 4” on the bottom of the pop-up page.

Now you must confirm that you want to enroll in your classes by clicking the “Finish Enrolling.”

You have successfully enrolled in your classes. Now you can view your class schedule, add another class, or resolve errors with the buttons on the bottom right-hand side.

The Auraria Campus has designated smoking areas. Smoking is prohibited in all areas not defined for this purpose.

The smoking area policy does not apply to public rights-of-way (sidewalks, streets) on the perimeter of campus.

The Auraria Campus community strives to be good neighbors by properly disposing of smoking waste in designated areas.

For more information regarding the smoking policy and cessation resources, visit: www.ahec.edu/smoking-policy
